Demotion Of Eccles Confuses Congress

By CHARLES B. SEIB
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Congressional leaders charged with developing an anti-inflation program were confused today by the surprise demotion of Marriner Eccles, Federal Reserve Board chairman.

The legislators expressed amazement at the president's sudden replacement of Eccles by Thomas B. McCabe, and at the same time puzzled over whether the action meant removal of White House support from Eccles' anti-inflation proposals.

However, McCabe's appointment appeared to be certain of approval both by the senate banking committee and the upper house itself.

Will Be Demoted

Eccles, who on Feb. 1 will be demoted to the vice-chairmanship, has been a fervent champion of tightened restrictions on bank credit as a major weapon against the inflationary trend.

He proposed to congress that the board be given the power to require all Federal Reserve banks to keep a special, or secondary, re-

House Debate To Open On Tax Cut Bill Thursday

House Democratic Leadership Seeks To Prevent "Break Through" In Ranks

VOTE ON MEASURE SET FOR MONDAY

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The House Democratic leadership strove today to hold the line against a 'break through' in minority ranks that would permit Republicans to marshall a two-thirds' vote for the GOP tax reduction bill.

Democrats were summoned together on the eve of tomorrow's opening debate on the Knutson bill for a closed meeting this afternoon to discuss the Republican measure. Democratic leader Rayburn of Texas said no effort would be made to bind members on voting.

House Republicans will assemble immediately after the Democratic meeting to discuss the Knutson bill also. The GOP leadership is anxious to roll up as close to a 100 percent Republican vote as possible for the measure.

The bill sponsored by Rep. Knutson (R) Minn. will be debated to-

Chile Is Holding Soviet Embassy Staff As Hostages

SANTIAGO, Chile, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The Chilean government was revealed today to be holding 25 members of the Soviet embassy staff in Santiago as hostages.

The Russians are being detained in an effort to get the Kremlin to grant permission for the Russian wife of the son of a Chilean diplomat to leave Russia.

The Soviet personnel have been forced to remain in Santiago despite the fact that Chile severed diplomatic relations with Moscow last Oct. 21.

The action was taken by Chile following failure of the Russians to allow the wife of Alvaro Cruz Ocampo, son of Chile's former minister to Moscow, to leave her native land.

Asserts 'Token' Force Only Need For Palestine

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Jan. 28.—The United Nations has been advised by the official Jewish agency that a small and mobile international "token" force would suffice to end the bloodshed in Palestine.

Moshe Shertok, head of the agency's political department and its spokesman at U.N., presented this viewpoint to the five-power Palestine commission at his second appearance before that body.

He claimed that appearance of even a "token" UN force, equipped with heavy aircraft and artillery, would have such a salutory effect on Arab morale that most of the fighting would cease.

The Jewish agency spokesman maintained that the Haganah (Jewish defense force) is willing to shoulder the major burden of warding off Arab attacks which may develop against the projected Jewish state.

He requested the Palestine commission to authorize the supplying of arms to the Jewish forces and to permit the establishment of a Jewish militia.

Oxygen was administered to the baby during the flight. Her father is based at Argentia.

The child will undergo a delicate neuro-surgical operation to relieve a serious head injury caused by a fall.

Thousands Idle In Detroit Plants Due To Cold Wave

Curtailment Of Fuel Gas For Industrial Purposes Hampers Industries

MANY AUTO PLANTS FORCED TO CURTAIL

By CYRIL LINDROTH
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

DETROIT, Jan. 28.—Nearly every major industry in Detroit, was crippled today as the year's severest cold wave forced curtailment of fuel gas for industrial purposes.

For the second time in less than a week, the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company cut off factory fuel to conserve meager supplies for homes.

Idled by the new shutdown, which the company said will continue for at least six days, will be a progressively increasing number of workers, starting with at least 200,000.

Plants Shutting Down

More than 60 plants began shutting down this morning. They included many parts makers and other manufacturers supplying the auto and other heavy production industries, and this is expected to result in production losses in scores of plants elsewhere in the nation.

The initial layoff will cost workers at least two million dollars a day in pay. Industry officials estimated the loss in production as high as 65,000 vehicles.

At Chrysler Corporation plants, where 50,000 workers were laid off during the three-day gas shutdown starting last Saturday, only the Dodge Truck division was operat-

Brief Break In Cold Wave Seen

Predict Temperatures Thursday Will Climb As High As 25, Many Workers Idle

(By International News Service)

A brief break in Western Pennsylvania's costly cold siege was seen for tomorrow as thousands of workers remained idle because of curtailment of industrial gas and frigid weather.

Temperatures were expected to climb as high as 25 in some areas, the weather bureau reported, after another night of sub-zero and near-zero readings.

Many Workers Idle

More than 15,000 workers were idled by an almost 100 per cent curtailment of gas to industries in Western Pennsylvania, Northern West Virginia and Eastern Ohio.

Two deaths were blamed on the cold today. Stephen Foster, 59, was found frozen to death in his home at Charleroi, and Mrs. Eva Uhrin of DuBois, died of exposure in her unheated home, state police reported.

Famed German Art Treasures Taken By Russia

BERLIN, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The United States Army Newspaper Stars and Stripes revealed today that the Russians have taken art treasures estimated at $170,000,000 from the Dresden Museum.

Raphael's world-loved "Sistine Madonna" was listed among the paintings removed by the Soviet forces as "war trophies."

In a special dispatch from its correspondent now touring the Soviet occupation zone, the army newspaper said that some 1700 paintings—the best of the museum's collection, once one of the world's greatest, were sent to Russia early in 1945, after the Russians took the city.

Left behind were only 1,231 paintings of lesser artists.

Japan Hunts For Bank Robber Who Poisoned Twelve

TOKYO, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Police intensified today a nationwide manhunt for a suave, middle-aged Japanese who dealt poison death to 12 employes of a Tokyo bank Monday and escaped with 200,000 yen from the institution's vault.

As the fiendish mass murderer continued to elude capture, the authorities said they believed the perpetrator was the same man who made three similar but unsuccessful attempts to rob banks since last October.

He succeeded in his fourth such excursion Monday when, by representing himself as a doctor acting under orders from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters, he induced 16 employes of the Imperial bank's Shiina branch to swallow poison.

He put the diabolical trick over by telling his victims the potion was a "preventative" against dysentery. Only four of the bank employes—including acting manager Takejiro Yoshida—survived and doctors said they will recover.

Green Predicts New Wage Demands

MIAMI, Jan. 28.—(INS)—AFL President William Green's prediction of new wage demands this spring stands as a warning today for congressional leaders.

The AFL leader recommended in Miami that President Truman be granted immediate authority to impose rationing and price controls on scarce items. Green also urged congress to make a "sweeping investigation of the current high living costs".

The labor leader, attending the mid-winter AFL executive council conference, charged that congress is following the wrong approach to "problems of inflation".

Arrest Of Guard At Sing Sing May Reveal Scandal

OSSINING, N. Y., Jan. 28.—(INS) — Sing Sing prison was threatened today with a bribery-gambling scandal following the arrest of Herbert Vincent Bosquet, 40, veteran prison guard.

New York State Police said Bosquet operated a letter-writing racket on a "service charge" basis for inmates who used most of the cash received to buy "special favors," bribe guards and gamble inside the prison.

Bosquet was arraigned before Police Judge George Bershein at Ossining, waived examination on a felony charge and was released on $5,000 bail pending action by the Westchester county grand jury.

Arrest Follows Inquiries

State Police of Troop K, Hawthorne, arrested Bosquet after an intensive two-months investigation ordered by State Correction Commissioner John A. Lyons and William E. Snyder, Sing Sing warden. Bosquet is accused of taking "hundreds of dollars" in "fees" for soliciting relatives of prisoners for cash.

Just what the "special favors" and "bribery" consisted of among cash-laden prisoners was not disclosed immediately.

Bosquet was trapped when relatives' replies allegedly were found in his home at 52 Lexington drive, Croton-on-Hudson.

Operating More Than Year

French Cabinet Crisis Temporarily Averted

(BULLETIN)

PARIS, Jan. 28.—(INS)—A French cabinet member said today that the moderate regime of Premier Robert Schuman will resign unless the National Assembly approves the government's financial program.

By ROBERT PARKER
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Jan. 28.—A French crisis was averted, at least temporarily, by agreement of the national assembly to hold debate today on the government's free-gold trading measure.

Premier Robert Schuman won by a vote of 373 to 184 approval of his change bill, which is part of the government's new monetary policy, be considered immediately as an urgent question.

The vote by the assembly was taken late last night following a special three-hour cabinet meeting at which it was decided to stake the life of the government on the monetary issue.

Schuman, although committing the future of his cabinet in asking assembly approval of immediate debate, avoided the traditional demand for an outright vote of confidence.

Any direct confidence demand would have delayed voting on the matter by 24 hours.

Debate will start following a meeting of the Socialist parliamentary group which both Schuman and Foreign Minister Georges Bidault are expected to attend although neither is a member.

Family Escapes Being Trapped In Burning Home

Maynard R. Branscome In Hospital From Burns Sustained Rescuing Children

ROUND STREET HOME DESTROYED

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard R. Branscome, and their three small children, of 14 South Round street, Union Township, narrowly escaped being trapped in their burning home shortly after midnight this morning. They escaped in their night clothing into the bitter cold night air, only through the heroic action of Mr. Branscome, who succeeded in passing the children out upstairs windows. Branscome, aged 33 years, however, was seriously burned about the neck and shoulders and is in the Jameson Memorial hospital, where it was stated this morning that his injuries, while painful, are not regarded as critical.

Home Destroyed

The home and garage was completely destroyed by the fire, which is believed to have started around the chimney in the cellar, and spread with rapidity. The loss is around $7,000, Fire Chief James E. Thomas reported.

Mr. Branscome and the children had gone to bed, and Mrs. Branscome had been downstairs reading, and had fallen asleep, but was awakened by the fire. By the time the fire was discovered, the house was full of smoke and fire. The electric wiring had been burned off, leaving the home in darkness.

Rescue Children

Mr. Branscome groped his way through the smoke and flame-filled upstairs, getting the two smaller children, Maynard Ray, aged four years, and little Orrin, aged two years, to the bathroom window, where he passed them out to his wife, who had gotten out through a door after giving the alarm. He then went back and rescued

Part of th loot included 30 cameras.

We're due to have a visitor, a whiskery, hairy chap, who for the last two months or so, has had himself a nap. Next Monday, so the legend goes, the groundhog breaks his snooze, and after combing out his hair and shining up his shoes, he pecks out at the winter scene and if the sun is out, he simply peels his brogans off and does a right about, and then goes back for six more weeks of sleep, or so they say. I hope the sun plays long with him, it's 17 today.

Need For Gas Saving Acute

Little Change In Situation Here—Hope For Break In Weather

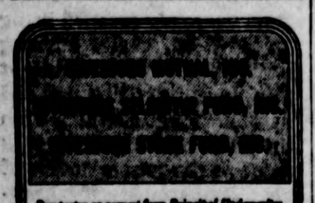

Little change is seen today in the supply of natural gas for New Castle and Lawrence County, according to T. J. Foley, manager of the Manufacturer's Light and Heat Company. The supply is about the same as it has been for the past three days with little chance of any marked improvement until the Weather Man decides to warm things up.

"The need for conservation is just as acute as it was," said Mr. Foley. If all our home customers will conserve, then all of them will have gas, not as much as they want perhaps, but enough to stay above the uncomfortable stage."

Weather reports continue to be more or less indefinite. Today's report is that the thermometer will go up some tomorrow. Yesterday the report was that a continued cold spell was in sight for some days. You pays your money you takes your choice.

In the meantime. Shut off your hot water heater when it is not needed. Keep your home temperature at 65 in the day time—if you heat with gas—and down to 60 or lower at night.

Reservations and tribal lands of the American Indians and Eskimos who are wards of the U. S. government would cover an area twice the size of Pennsylvania.

ing today. Closing of Dodge, De Soto and Chrysler auto plants in Detroit will result in a production loss of between 3,000 and 4,000 passenger cars daily.

Two Plants Open

Of the major auto plants in Detroit, only the nearly self-sufficient Ford River Rouge plant—which makes its own gas—and the Hudson Motor Company plants are open. At Willow Run, 30 miles outside Detroit, the Kaiser-Frazer Corp. announced that operations will not be interrupted because the plant has separate fuel supplies.

At least six General Motors plants including Chevrolet gear and axle, Chevrolet forge and spring, Detroit transmission and several Fisher Body plants are closed or seriously affected.

Other closed plants, whose output is essential to un-interrupted production of factories throughout the nation, include Kelsey-Hayes-Wheel Corp., Bohn Aluminum, Budd Wheel Corp., Detroit Steel Corp., Detroit Seamless Tube, Revere Copper and Brass and the Michigan Stove Company.

Aggravating the gravity of Detroit's plight was the weather bureau's prediction that Michigan's longest cold wave in a dozen years will continue through the weekend at least, the temperature in Detroit at 5 a. m. today was 4 above zero.

highway crews who have been called out for several days in a row to ash and clear roads, were given a respite over last night. Most roads are frozen dry, with a few icy spots.

Numerous motorists got their cars started this morning after they had been standing out overnight, but had to abandon some of them before they got to their destination Pa Newc discovered. Several of the cars were stalled along the street with the unfortunate drivers unable to get them going again.

Jack Frost and his assistants painted some very clever designs on a number of store and house windows this morning. Most autos that were left on the street had their windows frozen over solid. Drivers had to dig a spot on the front windshield so as to know where to go.

Mayor John F. Haven stated today that he would like to have the bell, which formerly was at the East Street fire department, placed on the new city building and sounded twice a day, at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. The bell was used on many auspicious occasions. It tolled respect for the dead and pealed loudly World War I armistice. When the bell was removed from the East street building it was stored at the South Jefferson Street fire department.

On the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bruno, R. D. 1, Old Princeton road, their Holstein cow Snowball gave birth to twin calves on Tuesday. This is the first time in 20 years of farming that there have been twin calves born on the Bruno farm. The little heifer and bull have been named "Tweetie" and Michael for the couple's two grandchildren.

HOUSE DEBATE TO OPEN TAX CUT BILL THURSDAY

morrow and Friday, with a final vote due Monday. Democratic leaders feel that while they cannot block passage, if they can prevent a two-thirds' vote for the bill, it will act as an inducement to the Senate to modify the legislation.

The question of a two-thirds' vote is paramount in Congress as President Truman has indicated he will veto the Republican bill. A move is already underway in the Senate to cut the tax reduction to four billion dollars. Knutson estimates that his bill would reduce personal income taxes between six billion and six billion 300 million dollars this year.

Would Scale Down

An influential Democrat predicted that not more than one-third of the Democrats would support the Knutson bill. Another Democratic spokesman, while agreeing with this estimate, added however, that a majority of Democrats probably would vote for a bill scaled down to four billion dollars.

The Democratic leadership will attempt after this afternoon's meeting to reach agreement, if possible, on a substitute for the Knutson bill which will be presented on the floor Monday.

The Republican measure would make percentage cuts in income taxes of 30 to 10 percent, beginning with the lower-income brackets; increase individual tax exemptions from $500 to $600; give added relief to the blind and aged; and provide benefits to married couples through nationwide extension of the community property plan for tax purposes.

serve of government bonds against their liabilities, in addition to the cash reserves now required.

The proposal would mean that the many billions of dollars worth of government bonds held by member banks could be immobilized.

Eccles suggestion drew the ire of many of the nation's bankers. Their opposition is believed on Capitol Hill to have played a large part in his demotion.

Capitol observers also believed that Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder may have been the agent who brought about the change in Federal Reserve leadership. Snyder, a valued presidential adviser, sharply differs with the Eccles banking program.

Banking Committee Chairman Tobey (R) N. H., refused a formal statement on the president's move until later today. He told reporters, however, that he found the action "amazing, incongruous and inconsistent".

SMOKE SCARE

Firemen were called to the home of M. S. Consla, of 713 Oak street, at 9:45 o'clock this morning, when smoke from the furnace filled the home. No action was required, Fire Chief James E. Thomas reported.

Tax Equalization Board Announces Two Appointments

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The State Tax Equalization Board today announced the appointment of L. Z. Holcombe, of Wormleysburg, as secretary and Paul H. Wueller, of State College, as special consultant.

The appointments of both men, experts in government and public finance research, are effective February 1.

Holcombe, who has been chief statistician of the state planning board since its establishment in 1934, will coordinate work of the committee in equalizing property values for school subsidy purposes.

Wueller, who will serve the committee in an advisory capacity, currently is research director for the joint state government commission and formerly served as director of the state school commission.

The three-member board is headed by G. Graybill Diehm, of Lancaster.

Named As Head Of School Building State Authority

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28—(INS)—Russell C. Bartram, of Pottstown, today was appointed executive director of the new State Public School Building Authority by Gov. James H. Duff at $7500 a year.

The 50-year-old retired navy captain will supervise what is expected to be a vast school construction program conducted over a long period. The authority was established by the General Assembly during the 1947 session to help schools finance improvements and expansion on a long-range basis.

In 1904 the Carnegie Institution of Washington established on Loggerhead Key, one of the Dry Tortugas islands off Florida, a marine biological laboratory at which much scientific work has been done. In 1908 the United States government set aside the entire group as a federal bird reservation.

TURNS DOWN APPOINTMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The White House revealed that George P. Baker, director of the Harvard university school of transportation, has turned down President Truman's offer of the chairmanship of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said that Mr. Truman offered the position to Baker, but received a letter from the Harvard official saying he would be unable to take the job because of its salary limitation.

Those who entrust arrangements to the Boyd Home for Funerals always may be certain of one thing. It is perhaps the most important of any from the standpoint of satisfactory service.

We never look upon any call for service as just another funeral. They are members of families in this community. We may be serving two or more families at one time, but each gets personal care and attention.

It is something to remember, particularly so when you have need for such a service.

BROADWAY MUSIC PROGRAM PRESENTED

Zesty, lively and tuneful was the "Music of Broadway" program presented Tuesday evening by the Music club in the Highland U. P. church before an audience that taxed the capacity of the simulated broadcasting station.

The Sunday school room, arranged to have the appearance of broadcasting station NCMC, formed the setting for the presentation of a program in two parts, the first composed of selections from operettas by Romberg, Tierney and Lehar, and the second, music from "Oklahoma".

Soloists who sang the tuneful operetta selections into an imagined "mike" were Mrs. H. W. Helmick, Miss Elise Ridley, Mrs. Paul Weller, Mrs. L. Paul Friend, Earl Hammond and Delbert Fletcher. Duets were sung by Mrs. Helmick with Mr. Fletcher and Mr. Hammond.

GENERAL IKE SAYS NO

In a statement not quite as incisive, but certainly as definite, as General William Tecumseh Sherman, General Dwight D. Eisenhower removed himself from the ranks of potential candidates for the Republican nomination for president.

Politically, his refusal to be considered as a candidate has many implications. Backers of Thomas E. Dewey and Harold Stassen insist it will aid their candidate. Democrats believe Eisenhower was a major threat to re-election for the presidency and for that reason are pleased at the statement.

But it is not the political implications with which we are dealing at the moment. It is a philosophy enunciated by the general with which many people are in full accord. He believes professional military men should not seek political offices of major proportion. These are his words:

"It is my conviction that the necessary and wise subordination of the military to civil power will be best sustained, and our people will have greater confidence that it is so sustained when lifelong professional soldiers, in the absence of some obvious and overriding reasons, abstain from seeking high political office."

Continuing in this vein he says, "—nothing in the international or domestic situation especially qualifies for the most important office in the world a man whose adult years have been spent in the country's military forces."

The words bespeak the man. Had he consented to be a candidate and assuming he would have been elected, we believe General Eisenhower would have made a wise and capable president. But apparently he is of the opinion that a democracy does not call for military leadership in civilian government. His election might easily set a precedent which, if followed, might well lead to a military government.

By the very nature of his profession, a military man exacts discipline by a form of dictatorship, necessary in time of war, but certainly not to be desired in times of peaceful government.

We believe General Eisenhower has done himself a personal disservice, for if any man ever seemed to have a chance to head his nation as president, he seemed to have.

But we believe he has done a service to the nation itself in setting down the philosophy he has. His admirers are disappointed of course, the politicos who hoped to get votes through his personal popularity will resent his withdrawal, but for the greater good, perhaps General Eisenhower has done the larger thing.

By his forthright statement he has increased in stature. He has proven himself an American who puts his country above personal gain.

STILL IN THE FAMILY

At first glance, Britain's Royal Navy may appear to have given new ammunition to those who like to snipe at the battleship as a dead duck in modern war. But the news that the British will scrap four battleships and the battlecruiser Renown has a background that should prevent the critics from starting to shoot without an official signal to commence firing.

In the first place, most of these ships are of World War I vintage, and even those completed or reconstructed in the late twenties are outmoded. It would be better to build new ones than to do any further remodeling.

Secondly, Britain still has five modern battleships and four older ones, more than any other nation except the friendly United States, whose seapower is overwhelmingly superior to that of all the rest of the world put together.

And finally, England needs the 163,000 tons of steel in those ships, which amounts to about four days' output of Britain's steel producers.

So the Royal Navy is simply cleaning house, and tossing useful junk into the nation's battle for economic survival. This does not mean that the battleship has no role in modern war. The reverse is true, as air admirals learned in the last war, when fast battleships, with their tremendous firepower, were an integral part of every big carrier task force.

The same will be true if there ever is another war. Naval air power will be a vital weapon for early defense and swift retaliation. Navy planes operate from carriers, which cannot carry the defensive armament that battleships can furnish for their protection.

In future war, only battleships, or their modern counterparts, will be able to carry the incredible mass of detection gear, fire control equipment, and defensive weapons that fleets will need, particularly when the fighting comes close, or when guided missiles penetrate the protecting aircraft screen.

In the unknown future of scientific warfare, carriers may loom as queens of the sea, but battleships have not yet been banished from the royal family.

You don't have to be an old timer to be able to remember when religious fanatics, instead of radio commentators, read the signs of the times and predicted the end of the world.

Mr. Molotov in London refused to attend a luncheon with Secretary Marshall for the purpose of "talking things over." When Mr. Molotov talks things over he wants a place where he can have plenty of publicity.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

The willingness of France to incur the displeasure of Great Britain and the international monetary fund in her desperate effort to solve her economic problems emphasized today the severity of the currency crisis in Europe.

Great Britain has given assurances that the devaluation will not prejudice Anglo-French friendship and relations.

To Protect Pound Sterling

But the British reserve the right to take whatever steps may be necessary to ensure that the pound sterling is not too greatly endangered.

Some of these measures may not assist France in her own difficulties. Britain can go only so far as to say that they will not purposely add to the French problems.

International exchange and currency devaluations are highly complicated and difficult for the layman to understand, especially when they mean surrendering hard gold for a newly-printed money on a lower basis.

French Moves Embrace

But on a broad interpretation, the present French moves embrace the following:

1—A determination to "save the franc" by all legal means even though some persons or nations get hurt in the process.

2—A deep-seated hope that this initial move will lead to a general overhaul of European currencies to eliminate black-market profiteering and runaway prices.

For years, many internationalists have urged a general currency reform as a contribution to peace, prosperity and understanding.

Some steps have been taken, such as moves toward customs unions and restoration of an unfluctuating rate of exchange.

Far Out Of Kilter

The latter in particular has gone far out of kilter, with even the dollar and the pound subjected to rises and falls, each one of which helps to throw international commerce out of balance and at the same time to aggravate international suspicions.

It is quite obvious that French Premier Robert Schuman's government is convinced that, unless immediate steps were taken despite objections from abroad, a far greater deterioration was inevitable.

Apparently it feels that the new measures will enable some sort of check-and-balance control which at least will prevent the franc from getting the short end of the stick on every major fluctuation.

The evils of inflation and black marketing have been saddled on continental Europe for many years, and some aspects of both have become part and parcel of everyday life.

Obviously there can be no definite and lasting solution until these are torn up root and branch, which even the most sanguine observers realize will be long, difficult and expensive and heart-breaking task.

As a major experiment, the French move is being watched with an interest compounded of hope and fear.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

For seven years these two ladies fought over the choice puppy from a litter of Catawba Muscatel, by Vendas the Black Imp.

Seven thousand dollars in damages was claimed and the case was presented in an eighty-seven-page disposition.

Last week it was settled—for $100.

The details of the case are unimportant.

It had something to do with one of the ladies having permitted her prize poodle to be bred by the prize poodle of the other lady.

She was to get the "choice puppy" out of the litter and that puppy, in turn, was to become the sire of a line of thoroughbreds of a total value exceeding $7,000.

Somehow or other the puppy, said the plaintiff, was not given to her, and so she sued.

Seven years of litigation.

Big lawyers' fees. Frayed tempers. Pages and pages of paper wasted on dispositions, claims and counter-claims.

And finally $100 was awarded to the claimant.

Sounds ridiculous, doesn't it?

But it isn't ridiculous at all.

While this particular case is somewhat out of the ordinary, there is hardly a day that people don't start fights, give up friendships and get themselves all worked up over nothing.

Some years ago one of my best friends and I had a fight.

We didn't speak to each other for seven years.

I didn't go to any affairs to which he went, and vice versa.

Then, one day, we ran into each other at a party, not knowing that both of us had been invited.

We couldn't help speaking.

It wouldn't have been polite.

Finally I asked him: "Still mad?"

"No," he said, "how about you?"

"I'm not mad any more."

So we shook hands and became friends again.

After a while he asked me: "By the way what were we fighting about? I've forgotten."

"Come to think of it, I haven't the slightest idea."

So you see—for seven years we could have been friends. For seven years we could have had fun together and kept the gall out of our systems.

For seven years we were just plain d——n fools!

Funny, by the way, that poodle affair I mentioned above was also a seven-year affair.

Got a chip on your shoulder? Flick it off! Chips have splinters and splinters hurt.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

WADING CAN BE A NUISANCE

Wading can be wholesome fun, and the tot who has not had opportunity to wade barefoot in warm shallow water has missed much. While it may be fun for any child to wade in pools and puddles anywhere, anytime, there may be many times when it is not wholesome for him to do so. Wading can be ruinous to his shoes, cause his mother needless work and worry and endanger his health.

When the child is armored with high rubber boots no harm may be done. Even so, if he runs in the water it may splash upon his clothes or the clothes of other children near him. If he is wearing low rubber shoes the water may run over them. One mother writes:

Feet Are Wet

"Often when my son, seven, comes home his feet are all wet, his shoes (ankle shoes) and rubbers and galoshes are wet inside, his socks and pant legs are wet half way to his knees. I change his clothes and ask him why he comes home wet like he does and he says he doesn't know why.

"The next day, when he goes to school we tell him to try to be careful and not get wet as he might catch a bad cold, he will come home wetter than the night before. We have tried giving him a spanking and will tell him what will happen if he does it again, but it does not seem to make any difference what we say. We have tried talking to him and I can't figure out what to do. I am enclosing a stamped envelope and hope you will advise us".

No Use Asking

As I wrote this mother, no use asking him why he waded in the water. You know the reason; for fun. Naturally he said he did not know the reason for he was sure you would not be convinced but might grow more angry at him.

Since you had the evidence without doubt and the offense occurred repeatedly, why did you go on talking and jawing? Apparently, when you got mad enough, you spanked him. By that time he was so worked up emotionally, too, as not to profit from the spanking. Besides, the chances are you just gave him a few slaps with your bare hand on his well-armored fundament—mild as the buzzing of a mosquito.

Give him no more warnings. Next time he comes home with his feet all wet apply a strap (if belt, not buckle end) or broad thin paddle so soundly it will really hurt. And let him change his clothes himself. He is seven.

Places To Wade

Mothers of younger children: In summer, find places where the tot can wade barefoot. Be right with him when he can be tempted to wade where and when he shouldn't. Soundly spank him instantly when he steps into water with shoes on. If he is wearing rubber boots show him how to wade so as not to run and splash in water then. Be very exacting. Thereafter, the very first time he comes in with wet clothes and feet from wading punish him effectively, doing likewise for each repetition. Be sure there can be no exception.

Then, if in all other situations, he has learned well the meaning of NO you should have no wading problem after he enters school (My bulletin, "How to Teach Tot Meaning of No" may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y). Scores of things your child can do in your absence without apprehension, but when his feet and shoes are wet he carries the objective evidence with him. There need be no trial, just decisive action.

They Say

WASHINGTON—John B. Beach, vice president of the National Lumber Manufacturing Association, hits price controls: "The...industry is unalterably, eternally and rightfully opposed...to controls...be they price, allocation or otherwise...partial, half-hearted or whole hog."

ALBANY—Gov. Dewey reminds the New York legislature that 160 years ago, when it ratified the federal constitution, it urged an anti-third term amendment: "I commend this principle...and recommend appropriate action so that it may...become part of the constitution."

WASHINGTON—Roy W. Gifford, Detroit manufacturer, urges modernization of European industry under the Marshall plan: "Unless the problem is approached this way you might as well shut your eyes and let the money go."

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland—Avery Brundage, president of the U. S. Olympic committee, opposes selection of the U. S. Amateur Hockey Association team as American representative at the games: "It...represents the rink owners. If this is an amateur setup I'm Christopher Columbus."

From Me To You

By MESEEALL

POLIOMYELITIS
That's an awful word
For a small child to be afflicted with;
Call it "infantile paralysis," it's just as awful.
Its attack is subtle, sinister—
It gets you before you know it.
It gets athletes, and dancers,
And Presidents-to-be,
And just common, ordinary people,
And it cripples them,
Sometimes for life.
But, if you take it in time
And apply hospital care—
Hot-pak treatments
By nurses with special training,
Just the right exercises,
You may lick it.
But where is the money to come from
For nurses and treatments?
It takes a lot, even for one case—
For your case, or your child's case.
It takes equipment that you don't have,
That is too expensive for you to buy.
The Foundation has it
And you can come to the Foundation,
No matter who you are.
But where does the money come from?
The Poster Boy asks you to give,
And give, and give,—
Dimes, dimes, dimes, quarters, dollars;
And then, if "polio" strikes
Help will be available.
We don't know, yet, the "ounce of prevention."
But if you give, we shall have the "pound of cure".

Washington Calling

Senate Majority Is Split

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Talking before the Republican majority of the Senate the other day, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio expressed the kind of bland optimism that some of his colleagues find almost as hard to take as the scoldings which their leader occasionally gives them. Taft said he understood that prices were beginning to level off.

"Yeah—the price of mink coats and diamond wrist-watches," one of the anti-Taft Republicans in the back row muttered.

The split in the Senate majority over the issue of inflation and what to do about it has sharpened the differences between the two factions as never before.

On the one hand are the stalwarts who follow Taft and Sen. Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska. They believe in sitting tight, confident that they can unload the blame for higher and higher prices on the Truman administration.

On Other Side

On the other side are such Senators as Ralph Flanders of Vermont, Ray Baldwin of Connecticut and Irving Ives of New York. They believe that their party, as the majority party in Congress, must take responsibility.

Flanders has introduced a bill providing that all the machinery for meat rationing be set up ready to go into operation if it should prove necessary in the sprin. Senators Ives and Baldwin have put in a rent-control bill that would extend controls until June 30, 1949. It would give both tenants and landlords the right of appeal locally and nationally where hardship is claimed.

These Republicans have been increasingly aware of the way inflation is pinching the average American. They know how the cost of food in the average family budget has climbed and climbed until it absorbs nearly half of the income of the low-wage groups. The fact that prices of luxuries may be levelling off, which is doubtful in any event, while prices for necessities continue to rise sounds like very bad news, since it could be the herald of depression.

Widely Divergent

The difference between the two Republican wings is not confined to details of legislation. It gets down to the basic approach to politics in this election year.

The Flanders-Ives-Baldwin faction believes in constructive approach. They think that the American people respond to the constructive rather than to the destructive attack. In this connection the remark attributed to the late Wendell Willkie on the subject of Herbert Hoover is recalled:

"Unfortunately Mr. Hoover allows his thinking to be dominated by Mr. Roosevelt."

This same charge is made today against the Taft-Wherry leadership. Critics in the Senate say that they wait to see what the administration decides and then they oppose it. In other words, they have not outgrown the kind of negative opposition which typified the Republican stand all through the New Deal era.

Ives and Baldwin have particularly strong feelings on this score. Each in his own state demonstrated what can be done with a constructive approach.

Shaped Program

As Republican leader in the legislature in Albany, Ives shaped a constructive program that won elections for his party. He sponsored and pushed to adoption measures such as New York's Fair-Employment-Practices law.

In Connecticut, Baldwin followed the same tack. In his first campaign for the governorship in 1938, he refrained from exploiting the scandals of the Democratic administration. He talked instead about what his party could do to make Connecticut a better state and he won the election.

Naturally it is not just politics and the chances for '48 that concern these conscientious Senators. They are fearful of what a bad deflationary bust could do to the country and the world.

The cost of living is still moving upward. In a preliminary report on the change from November to December of last year, the Bureau of Labor Statistics showed that the cost of living index had moved up more than 1 per cent in a month—which is a drastic change. The experts who compile the index see nothing to alter the upward trend. They talk of explosive possibilities in certain foods particularly meat, with the explosion related to crop conditions here and in Europe.

Constructive action by Congress might put a period to the spiral. It is such constructive action that the Flanders-Baldwin-Ives wing is urging. They insist it is not enough merely to pile the blame on the other side in an effort to come to power by default.

Yes, "But Don't Quote Me"

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 28.—Off-record reporting means telling the truth without revealing the source or the occasion of the interview. Following are some off-record statesments by men who were talking from inside information on several topics of the day.

The Marshall Plan: "Yes, the State Department's face would have been pretty red if Molotov had accepted our invitation to join the Marshall Plan. We'd have had to back down on that one. There wasn't a chance at that time (last summer) that this country would have agreed to help Russian recovery. Molotov could have called our bluff. If he'd been smart, he'd have joined up—he could have joined the Marshall Plan to death."

Again Russia "Missed Boat"

Russian Diplomacy: "Another time Russia missed the boat was right after V-J Day. Russia then had a huge reservoir of good will in this country, and we were ready to help her rebuild. But the Soviet leaders made the choice between short-term recovery and long-term political ambitions. They sacrificed our friendship in order to move into political vacuums created by the war. They'd have been moving yet if we hadn't drawn the line."

Forrestal vs. Marshall: "The other day Forrestal (Secretary of Defense) suggested that we had ideas of acquiring European bases under the Marshall Plan. Gen. Marshall immediately denied it. No matter what anybody else thinks, Gen. Marshall thinks only in terms of European recovery. But when two Cabinet members can disagree on such a vital point of foreign policy, you can see that we don't really know where this thing is going to take us. Some people think that our foreign policy is power politics, and maybe they're right. But not so far as Gen. Marshall is concerned."

Lose Only Good Publicity

The Steel Shortage: "I suspect that some of the steel-users, particularly the automotive industry, won't suffer from cutbacks in production as much as they pretend. Their profits are high, and they won't lose anything except the good publicity that goes with lowering prices. But there's no use talking about building more TVA's while we're planning to ship steel to Europe."

Labor: "When certain labor leaders come to see a certain high official and politician, he gives them this election year advice—'Go home and Reutherize your unions'."

Religious Prejudice: 1. "It's a dead issue in American politics. You ought to write a column urging the nomination of a Catholic for Mr. Truman's vice president. The whole country now knows that the Vatican is our strongest ally against Communism." 2. "It's even worse than it used to be. All this talk about the Communist minority and infiltration has made Americans suspicious of any minority. They may be secretly ashamed of it—and ought to be—but there it is."

Wear Away Iron Curtain

The Iron Curtain: "One reason for building up the industries of Western Europe is to make her useful to Eastern Europe. If anything will wear away the iron curtain, it's trade between the Marshall Plan countries and the Molotov Plan countries."

The Truman Doctrine: "Well, I hope he knows what he's doing, that's all. Six months before Pearl Harbor, I happen to know our warships in the Atlantic got this message—'Take immediate offensive action against all Axis surface craft. Knox.' Our fleet hunted a Nazi super-cruiser up and down the French coast, but she got away. If we'd sunk her or if she'd sunk us, Roosevelt would have gone on the radio and denounced this base act of Fascist treachery. Well, Roosevelt knew what he was doing—see? Does Mr. Truman know? I hope so. I hope so."

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE CHIEF AIM

If it's money you are after,
You must turn away from laughter
And put pity for another,
Out of heart and out of mind.
Of your only aim is money,
Be it rainy day or sunny,
You must work long hours to get it,
Without stopping to be kind.

But if you'd have friends about you,
Lover ones true who never doubt you,
If you think there's more to gather
Than a bank roll down the years;
If you'd share in fullest measure
All the joys allowed to leisure,
You must take the time from business
When the chance to play appears.

Oh, the best life is the rounded
One on loving service founded;
One that bears life's burdens bravely,
But remembers to be kind;
One, beyond the call of duty,
Still finds time for things of beauty,
And at last leaves happy memories
To the friends who stay behind.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

There is no dissatisfaction here with the devaluation of the franc. ...We haven't had opportunity in years to buy 214 anything for one dollar.

But it is a commentary on the times when a dollar will get you 204 more francs than frankforts.

In Canada there is a movement afoot to devalue the cabbage which has gone off the vegetable standard.

This week roses were $5 a dozen and cabbages were $6 but the fellow who wanted to stand solid with his girl still sent roses.

There are very few girls who can wear a corsage of cabbages and look exotic as well as expensive.

But Canadians no longer complain about the smell of cooking cabbage...They boast about it a little.

The World and the Mud Puddles

TOO MUCH POLITICS

We feel a little sympathy for Mr. Charles Luckman, retiring—probably in disgust—as head of the executive food conservation program. Mr. Luckman, in his own line of business, has been an outstanding executive—said to be the highest-salaried in the United States. Except perhaps for certain shortening items manufactured by his large company, however, Mr. Luckman has had no experience worthwhile with the vital and basic items of food, or the relation betwen the supply of foodstuffs and the domestic and world demand. Like many another business man, suddenly drafted to fill a job partly public and partly political, he assumed that he could apply to a national problem and methods applied to his own business. He took for granted that the same overwhelming publicity methods, successful in the soap business, would work in a national crusade, partly business and partly sentimental—and largely political, besides. Nobody can question his high intentions and patriotic motives.

Luckman Was "Goat"

The truth now appears to be that Mr. Luckman was a "goat." The national administration had a potato, too hot to hold—in the matter of living costs—and handed it to Mr. Luckman. Even Mr. Luckman's business-trained fingers got burned. He was handed a program ready-made, and already extensively advertised. His committee was picked in advance. His policies were not his own. He took the program and the tools and did the best he could. But his backing was wobbly and lacked unanimity among government officials.

Millions of Americans have sincerely wished that more able and experienced representatives of industry could be persuaded to undertake public service. Hundreds of such men have sacrificed by serving as "dollar-a-year men" or assumed governmental missions at a fraction of their business and industrial salaries. But most of them have been disillusioned in the long run by encountering a factor missing in private enterprise—politics, with its ramifications of expediency.

We have made some frank criticism of Mr. Luckman's policies,

Russians Set Forth Five New Conditions For Austrian Peace

VIENNA, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The Russians set forth today five new conditions for settlement of disputed economic clauses in the projected Austrian peace treaty.

Austrian government circles consider the new Soviet proposals as a step forward for further negotiations but point out that they leave the main problem as to what can be regarded as German assets still unsolved.

The Soviet proposals include:

1. That the Russians receive two-third of the production of the Zistersdorf oilfields.
2. Russian oil concessions to last for 50 years.
3. Austria is to pay the Soviet Union 200 million shillings as reparations in the next two years.
4. The Soviets are to receive 20 to 40 per cent of the annual revenue of the Danube Shipping company and other industries and enterprises considered German assets.
5. The Russians be authorized to export freely oil profits and other revenues accrued in the same way.

Music Operator Submits His Side Of Tax Proposal

DeLos Burnside, owner of automatic phonographs or "juke boxes" recently, in a letter to council, reported the operator's side of council's proposal to tax music boxes.

He said he had 50 on location, and the arverage gross intake per week, was $12. He reported that this grossed $600 weekly, but operating expenses amount to $513.

He reported that when a machine was damaged it became his expense.

Burnside further stated that his 1947 capital investment was $15,824.99, and added his only chance of paying off the debt is in case the collections run over average, a thing that seldom happens.

"I believe that if city officials were properly informed about this business, they would realize that to tax same would be confiscatory," he wrote, concluding with the request that council vote to refrain from jeopardizing his business.

Bolivian Capital In State Of Siege

LA PAZ, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The Bolivian capital of La Paz was under a state of siege today and mass arrests were ordered following the uncovering of a plot against the state last week.

Among those already arrested are a former vice-president of Bolivia, Julian Montellano, and a former cabinet member, Dionisio Foianini.

The Bolivian government released documents purporting to prove that it crushed a carefully planned revolt Sunday.

It was said that 400 men, armed with guns and knives, planned to assault the government palace and assassinate 60 officials.

Fifty Homeless In Pittsburgh Fire

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 28.—(INS)—A six-alarm fire swept a Pittsburgh apartment house Tuesday night, leaving at least 50 persons homeless and causing damage estimated at more than $20,000.

The fire lasted almost four hours and five firemen were overcome by smoke, as they fought the blaze in near zero weather.

Henry Gibson and his wife Charlotte, owners of the building, first discovered the blaze. Risking their own lives, they raced through the building to warn the occupants of the impending danger.

It is believed all 50 occupants of the house are safe.

Insists Britain Does Not Have Any Inflation At Moment

LONDON, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps, who has promised to protect the pound sterling from devaltuation, insisted Tuesday that Britain does not have inflation despite a 40 per cent loss in monetary values.

In answer to a question, he admitted to the House of Commons that the purchasing power of the pound in December, 1947, was provisionally estimated as only 60 per cent of the pound as it stood in December, 1938.

Cripps said that this does "not necessarily" indicate an inflationary condition.

The chancellor told the house that Britain waived four million pounds sterling interest charges on 27 million pounds in wartime service charges to consummate its recent trade agreement with Russia.

BEAVER FALLS TO LIFT OLD HARMONY LINE CAR TRACKS

BEAVER FALLS, Jan. 28.—Beaver Falls city council has given permission to Joseph Blinn, scrap dealer, to take out the old Harmony street car line rails in lower Seventh avenue, provided he restores the thoroughfare in good condition and mantains one-way traffic while the work is in progress.

The city had promised the state highways department some time ago that the rails would be removed. The old ties will remain in the street and the city will furnish paving brick to fill in the holes left by the rail removal project.

Scout Leaders Planning Events

Reports Given By Girl Scout Leaders Association Members At Regular Session

Members of Girl Scout Leaders Association met Tuesday evening, in the Scout offices of the Greer building for their monthly meeting.

The business meeting was conducted with Miss Maxine Bigley, president, in charge.

A report of the Program Committee was given by Mrs. Thelma Booher. She gave a most favorable account of the Christmas favors made by the troops and which were furnished to the following institutions: The Margaret Henry Home, The Almira Home, Jameson Memorial Hospital, New Castle Hospital, Lawrence County Home and The Salvation Army. A total of 530 favors were made in all—a new high in this field of community service. Any troops who did not contribute to favor-making at Christmas are asked to do so for Easter. Mrs. Booher also reported that sufficient money had been given by various troops to pack 42 kits for veterans at Deshon Hospital, Butler.

There will be a city-wide Skating Party for all Girl Scouts to be held Saturday March 22 at the Arena from 9:30 to 12. Leaders are requested to find out the number of girls from their troop planning to attend.

The leaders will be entertained by council at a party to be held March 2, at the home of Mrs. R. G. Dickson, Sheridan avenue.

Plans were made for the February meeting which will be a party given by the leaders with their husbands as guests. The date will be Friday, February 20. Mrs. Thelma Booher, Miss Maxine Bigley and Miss Laura Snider will serve on the committee in charge.

Following the business meeting, a round-table discussion was held with various items of interest to the leaders being brought up at that time.

No Date Set

He said that the program calls for the transfer of certain quantities of Saar coal to the German pool until German coal production can be considered to have reached a level where Saar production can be designated as belonging to France.

Truman's Proposals On Tax And Budget Claimed 'Illogical'

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce today blasted President Truman's tax and budget proposals as "illogical and inconsistent."

E. M. Elkin, of Pittsburgh, chairman of the State Chamber's Committee on Taxation and Government Expenditures, suggested a two point program for Congress to substitute for that of the President.

"The key to lower taxes, debt retirement and economic progress . . . is lower federal spending, a vital subject about which little has been said by the President," Elkin explained.

He recommended that Congress "drastically" cut the federal budget "by minimizing waste, reducing government civilian personnel," and postponing all spending projects not imperative.

He also urged that all income tax payers be granted "a substantial reduction" in tax rates and that married couples be permitted to split income for tax purposes. Credit, to dividend recipients for taxes previously paid by corporations on income also was urged.

Elkin claimed that Mr. Truman's proposal for a $40 tax reduction for each taxpayer and independent would be unfair to all income ranges and "inflationary in its general effects."

He asserted that higher corporate taxes as proposed by the President would be passed on to consumers in the form of high prices.

Calls For Firing Of Four Named As Speculators

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Sen. Dworshak (R) Idaho called on Agriculture Secretary Anderson today to fire four Commodity Credit Corporation employees if reports that they gambled in foods are found to be true.

Dworshak, a member of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee investigating speculation, declared that CCC officials—four of whom were named as speculators in a list made public by Anderson—would have access to "inside information" by the nature of their work. Dworshak said:

"They stand convicted by their actions. As officials of CCC they would have direct contacts with the administration's buying policies."

The Idaho senator declared that government-employed speculators who had access to "inside" information that would affect the market should be dismissed from their jobs.

notably the falacy of his "poultryless Thursday" as a means of grain conservation. We appreciate that he has been oversold on the efficacy of slogans and publicity. But we have recognized and still recognize his patriotic motives and his willing sacrifice. It is unfortunate indeed that his disillusioning experience, as the scapegoat for an administration unable to work itself out of his own digging, may prove a serious deterrent to public service on the part of other able leaders of business and industry.

But we cannot encourage such service by waiting until a crisis develops to unload it in the lap of a willing and unsuspecting citizens.

As you drive along the highway do you anticipate what MIGHT be in your path concealed from vision by reason of a hill crest or curve? Do you slow down and prepare to stop as you approach an intersection when traffic is approaching at right angles, anticipating that even though you have the right of way the other driver might NOT stop? Many tragic highway accidents could be averted if our drivers would keep these two driving cues in mind.

LATE FOR DINNER PARTY

"Recently I attended a dinner party at the home of a new acquaintance. I was a half hour late. When I arrived, they were eating, having waited for fifteen minutes for me. So, I apologized and sat down feeling uncomfortable because they did not wait for me. Don't you think they should have?"

Answer: Only the most unavoidable circumstances excuse one who is late for a dinner. When you found that you could not be there on time you should have telephoned to your hostess, giving your reason. If it was a traffic jam, over which you had no control and during which you could not have telephoned, a verbal excuse on your arrival would have sufficed. Five minutes' grace is allowed dinner guests. It is inexcusable for anyone to plan to arrive any later. No hostess is expected to wait more than fifteen or twenty minutes at the most for a tardy guest. For not only are the punctual guests kept waiting for him but the dinner is probably spoiled and the hostess' evening ruined. Needless to say, the hostess should not take the tardy guest to task. She should say something tactful, such as: "I didn't think you would mind if we started." The hostess, herself, should arrange to be dressed and ready to receive ten or fifteen minutes before the time set for the dinner.

Question: Should the hostess have herself served first? Most of them seem to think so?

Answer: She should never have herself served first unless she is the only woman present. Service should begin with the woman to the host's right. Of course, at family dinner at which her husband and children are the only diners, it does not matter. Service should proceed left but it is a good idea to reverse it occasionally so that the same person will not be served last at every course.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

ARAB-JEWISH CONFLICT

Presented by

RALPH E. BANEY

JEWISH MISSIONARY FROM PALESTINE

WHO WILL SPEAK AND SHOW THE MOST COMPLETE AND ORIGINAL SOUND MOTION PICTURES ON PALESTINE TODAY.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday, Feb. 1st, 7:30 P. M.

Experiences of more than 10 years' living and working among the Jews in Europe and Palestine will be embodied in a lecture, with motion pictures, on "The Palestine Crisis". The motion picture will show such scenes as the ancient and modern Palestine of today—Fishermen of Galilee and Shepherds of Judea—under the tents of the Desert Bedouin Tribes—Jews at the Wailing Wall on Passover Day—and traveling in the footsteps of Christ.

The speaker, Mr. Baney, before the war was a missionary in Palestine. He was later sent to Germany to work in the Jewish ghettos, and was imprisoned in a concentration camp. After the war he returned to his mission work in Palestine and is now home on a brief furlough and lecture tour.

In years past he has spoken of his experience in Nazi Germany and about his Palestine work before many leading churches throughout the state. He has now been invited by these churches for another lecture and presentation of his most unique and up-to-date motion picture film.

From his years of work in Palestine doubtlessly he will be able by his pictures on the screen and in his lecture to present a most timely review of the events relative to the partition and present-day Jewish and Arab conflict in this land of Palestine. He has lived with the Jews and he has lived with the Arabs and has pictured them in his film, "The Holy Land Passing Parade" from Dan to Beersheba — their everyday life, ancient and modern culture—the rebirth of a nation, and in fact a most unique panorama view of this country and people which today is demanding the attention of the entire world.

There is no admission charge for this lecture and motion picture. The public is invited to hear and to see Mr. Baney's pictures after which there will be a free-will offering taken for Christian missionary work in Palestine. Everyone is cordially invited and urged to avail themselves of this unusual opportunity to hear and see the pictures taken by one who has just returned from the D. P. camps of Europe and troubled Palestine.

PORTABLE RADIO REPORTED STOLEN

Carl Brodner, operator of a dance school at 371½ East Washington street, reported to police that someone stole a Delco portable radio from the studio while he was absent. A man, 5.10½ with sandy hair and wearing an overcoat was seen leaving the school with something under his overcoat which bulged. Shortly afterward a man offered a radio for sale in an East Side saloon.

Annual Fruit Day Program Is Held Here On Tuesday

Lawrence County Fruit Growers Discuss Problems And Outlook At Annual Meeting

Lawrence County Fruit Growers gathered in the Y.M.C.A., Tuesday, for the annual meeting of the county association, when new developments in the fruit industry were discussed.

Henry Menusan, Penn State College fruit specialist, stated that a number of new insecticides are being developed and are expected to be on the market soon, but that further testing will be necessary to determine their reaction and to assure that no bad effects will result from their use.

J. A. Ruef, marketing expert, stated that although the apple crop during the past year was somewhat smaller than normal, that it was moving slowly. With farm costs mounting, a much smaller net income is anticipated this year than during the war years.

Stricken Congressman Is Improved Today

BALBOA, Canal Zone, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Officials at Margarita Hospital in Balboa reported today that Rep. J. Parnell Thomas is in a "satisfactory" condition after a restful night.

They said his temperature had returned to normal and that he appeared more alert than he did prior to receiving blood transfusions. The hospital refused to be optimistic, however, fearing the recurrence of hemorrhages.

Earlier, spokesman for the Panama line and police officials discounted rumors that the New Jersey Republican, who is chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, was poisoned aboard ship by Communist crew members.

The Congressman was on his way to investigate alleged Communist influence behind Panama's rejection of the lease of air bases to the United States when he suffered gastro-intestinal attacks.

Ruling Made On Auto Dealers

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Automobile dealers were banned today under a ruling by the State Justice Department from collecting agents' commission on fire, theft or collision insurance on vehicles sold on time payment plans.

The ruling included dealers who are recognized fire insurance agents, the department said.

"A dealer's insurable interest in the vehicle is . . . equivalent of the unpaid balance of the contract," the department ruled. "The dealer is at all times, up until the final installment payment, the legal owner of the insured property."

Safe Driver League For Pennsylvania Is Announced By Duff

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff has announced the formation of a Pennsylvania safe driver league by his highway safety conference and urged the enlistment of motorists to help reduce traffic fatalities.

"This movement should prove a valuable contribution to the organized effort to save lives which steadily has been growing in Pennsylvania since the governor's safety conference was organized in August, 1946, and which has enjoyed a real measure of success," Duff asserted.

Accidents Decrease

He attributed a reduction of 148 traffic deaths during 1947, when 1552 persons were injured fatally, to the coordinated efforts of automotive and civic groups promoting highway safety.

"A Pennsylvania safe driver league should be a worthy addition to this cooperative safety movement which must not only be continued but intensified to bring about a still greater reduction in the number of lives which are sacrificed annually on our streets and highways to carelessness and recklessness," Duff said.

Driver-members of the league will be presented with "safe driving" stickers for their windshields as a public pledge to conserve human life.

Have Comic Roles In School Play

Jackie Mitchell Gerry Ginsberg

Jacqueline Jane Mitchell and Geraldine Alice Ginsberg have definitely comic roles in "Quiet Summer", the senior high school play which will be performed publicly in the school auditorium this Friday evening.

Jackie is one of the younger set who keep the area back of the footlights a hurricane of activity and excitement during three acts. In the character of Jeanie, who is just one of the girls, her brief opportunity, but a good one, is when she punishes her offending swain by a stage demonstration of how not to see or hear one who is visibly and audibly present.

Gerry, too, has one of the minor roles that become important by being well done. She is Carrie, the maid, and she progresses from strong disapproval of the unexpected guests who make the summer unquiet, to rebellion, quitting and then somewhat later returning to a genuine welcome. She covers up her loss of dignity through surrender, by a well-placed jibe that is her gesture of independence.

Jacqueline is the daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Mitchell of East Washington street. Geraldine is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Philip Ginsberg of East Leasure avenue.

Bicyclists in the Netherlands are licensed and required to obey all traffic regulations.

He's been "on the team" for nearly 30 years...

Roy Huthmaker happens to be a Senior Plant Clerk with us in Scranton. He might have been a tank truck driver, a salesman, a research chemist, or president of our company—the basic story would run the same.

He came to work for Standard Oil of Pennsylvania years ago. His work has been steady and his pay has been good. At 65, he'll retire with a life income under the company pension plan. In the Thrift Plan, he's got a tidy cash nest-egg saved up. He's had regular vacations with pay, and special protection in case of sickness or accident.

In short, Roy has a high degree of the things that mean most to a man with a job.

He has them because it was planned that way. For over 30 years, the workers of this and affiliated companies, their unions, and the management have worked in common agreement that people's needs as human beings are the most important thing in the world.

And it's not mere generosity. It has proved plain good business all along the line.

The average worker today has been with these companies over 14 years. More than 8,000 of them over 20 years. That's a lot of seasoned manpower to have on your side in the competitive business of making quality gasoline and other petroleum products.

And its benefits extend clear out to you . . .

Right now the whole petroleum industry is straining to meet the greatest demand for its products in all history—and this staff of skilled, experienced people is your assurance that everything possible is being done with this company's facilities to meet your needs for more and better petroleum products.

As your neighbors, too, people like these are good citizens, steady customers of local stores, steady payers of local taxes.

And year after year, as makers of products you depend on in your car or factory or home or on your farm . . . they're second to none in ability to give good value at modest price!

In one short week 10,000,000 people jammed showrooms to see the amazing, beautiful new Hudson—a new kind of motor car—only five feet from ground to top, but with more inside head room and roomier seats than in any other mass-produced car built today!

Hudson's new, all steel Monobilt body-and-frame is the only motor-car construction that completely encircles you, even outside the rear wheels, with a rugged, box-steel foundation frame.

You ride within this frame—cradled between axles—not on top of the frame as in other cars. And as you ride, Hudson's combination of unique construction and comfort features gives you a sensation of snug safety and serene, smooth going unlike anything you've known before!

Meet the new Hudson—get all the facts about Hudson's all-new Super-Six engine, the power-packed Super-Eight engine, and Hudson's "Drive-Master" transmission that provides automatic gear shifting in forward speeds. Two Saved From Monoxide Fumes

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Quick rescue work by Pittsburgh police was credited Tuesday night with saving a 58-year-old woman and her daughter from death of carbon monoxide fumes.

In response to a call for aid, three policemen rushed to the house of Mrs. Emma Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Verrillo, 40, and found them lying unconscious.

Working in relays, the policemen applied artificial respiration for more than a half hour before the women were revived.

A defective flue in a new gas stove is believed to have been responsible for the accident.

Sodalists of the Young Ladies Sodality of St. Joseph's church will receive holy communion in a body at the 8 o'clock mass Sunday morning, February 1.

Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER
City Health Superintendent

APPLE SHINER

An apple shiner does not have a very high standing in his community. He may seem to be very industrious and careful of appearances.

His real accomplishments are not usually worth much.

Public health work is not usually very spectacular. It is done quietly and unobtrusively.

A pure clean milk supply is necessary. It does not come with a brass band.

When you turn on your faucet you expect pure water. It comes quietly without a big parade.

Clean sanitary eating places are the rule rather than the exception in our city. There has been a big display of fire works about it.

Typhoid has disappeared but it was not saluted with twenty-one guns.

All of these things have come about quietly and with out any apple shining.

POLICE PROMISE GAMBLING PURGE

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Pittsburgh police moved in today where the Duquesne basketball team left off in running the "heckling gamblers" out of the Gardens.

Police Superintendent Harvey Scott announced, "we're going to stamp out this gambling". A near riot followed Monday's game between the Dukes and Texas Wesleyan, which the Texans won 57-53. Duquesne players charged into the stands in an effort to nab the hecklers who had been "riding" them all season.

Scott promised to do everything in his power to prevent a recurrence of Monday's spectacle.

BELL TELEPHONE LABORATORIES

is a major factor of

Good Telephone Service at Low Cost

Bell Telephone Laboratories, the research organization which serves the entire Bell System, has one objective: To create the best facilities for telephone service that scientific knowledge can make possible . . . facilities, of course, that result in the most economical service.

From our point of view, however, its objective is to create for Pennsylvanians the best facilities for telephone service that scientific knowledge can make possible . . . facilities, of course, that result in the most economical service.

And that it does.

As a Pennsylvanian, you enjoy the full results of this research without the corresponding expense of our trying to maintain an efficient laboratory of our own.

But that is only half the story.

Because of centralized research and the collective work of scientists, chemists, and physicists, the development of electrical communication has been fast and sure, and equipment exists today which might not otherwise have been conceived.

You marvelled at the accomplishments of concerted research when this country produced the atom bomb. Your ability to talk across the city, the nation, or the world is the result of similar concerted effort.

Make no mistake about this: Bell Telephone Laboratories is a major factor in your having good telephone service at low cost.

Green Warns On Marshall Plan Administration

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 28.—(INS)—An AFL word of warning and a recommendation that labor be represented on any advisory council for the administration of the Marshall plan is being weighed by proponents of the European recovery program.

Both the recommendation and the warning came from AFL President William Green at the labor group's mid-winter executive council meeting in Miami.

Green, at the same time, reaffirmed his group's backing of the Marshall plan, but warned:

May Be Boomerang

"With the wrong kind of administration the Marshall plan may turn out to be a fiasco and a boomerang."

Green said, however, that his group "will serve if given the opportunity to serve."

The AFL's executive group decided that the Marshall plan "will prove successful with the right kind of administration." And the council also voted to call upon congress to provide for the appointment of an advisory council to handle the program.

Should Be Represented

The AFL chief said that key government departments, as well as labor, should be represented on the advisory council.

Later, Green briefly outlined the federation's plan for forming political action groups before the next presidential election.

He explained that the infant political group, known as "Labor's League for Political Education", will meet in Miami Feb. 4 to draft complete plans for a coordinated labor vote. Green said:

"The general policy will be to oppose every congressman who voted for the Taft-Hartley law. That law will be the principal issue in the coming election, so far as labor is concerned."

Report 260 Japanese Drowned When Vessel Hits Drifting Mine

Violent Explosion Rocks Jap Ferry Boat On Inland Sea Last Midnight

TOKYO, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Two hundred and sixty Japanese lost their lives by drowning when a ferryboat struck a mine and sank with a violent explosion in Japan's Inland sea at midnight last night.

U. S. far east air forces headquarters in Tokyo termed it a "major sea tragedy" in an announcement today which stated 145 occupants of the crowded vessel had been rescued.

Three Britons Rescued

Among the rescued were three Britons. British headquarters in Tokyo said one British army officer and two sergeants were picked up early this morning after they had leaped into the sea from the sinking vessel.

Headquarters said no Americans were aboard the ferry, and the Japanese government did not call upon American authorities for aid.

The tragedy occurred near Shikoku island off southern Japan. The ferry was en route on a regular run from Japan's main island of Honshu to the archipelago's southernmost isle of Kyushu when the vessel hit the floating mine—an undetected vestige of the war.

State Offers Free Toxoid For Children

HARRISBURG — Toxiod for the immunization of 169,885 Pennsylvania children against diphtheria and tetanus was supplied to schools, child health centers, and local boards of health last year (1947) by the State Department of Health, it was reported today by Dr. Norris W. Vaux, Secretary of Health.

Immunization protects today's children from diphtheria and tetanus, two infections that caused many deaths in former years. Combined diphtheria-tetanus toxoid injections are given to children from six months to nine years of age.

Immunization campaigns are conducted periodically in Pennsylvania by field representatives of the State Health Department with the cooperation of the Medical Society of Pennsylvania and volunteer agencies.

IN THE OPEN

The morning sun burned off the last wisps of frosty haze and bathed the countryside in pale effulgence. Driving snow squalls, which had halted during the night, had laid an eight-inch blanket of powdery whiteness across the hills. Countless crystals smouldered in glowing brilliance as they reflected the glory of the mounting sun.

Against the far hill the grape tangles and the jutting rock ledges stood out in bold relief. Tremendous icicles curtained the overhanging outcrops, creating frigid caves which will hold intact until the next good thaw. Even though the mercury stood near the zero mark, the sun's angle of approach was a dead giveaway that the first month of winter is over. The cold gray days of January will soon succumb to the siren song of February, while the groundhog stirs sleepily in his snug den.

Starlings Protest

Faced with the task of clearing walks and driveways, the countryman dons knee boots and jacket and bends his back to an hour of honest toil. As he stops for an occasional "breather" he hears the uncomplimentary remarks of the starlings from the neighboring barnyard. These feathered hoodlums seek safe perch in the tops of the tall poplars by the roadside. Here they sit and comment caustically while the snow shoveller labors down below.

The starling is a rank opportunist. He probably shares with the obnoxious English sparrow the opprobrius role of feathered fascist. When he found he couldn't drive the bluebirds from the nesting box on the side of the garage he infiltrated by stuffing his own noisome nest in the crevice at the rear of the box. The bluebirds raised one brood and then left in disgust, unable to stomach this arrogant boorish neighbor any longer.

The far flung starling legions have smashed their bullying way through all opposition, until they are now firmly entrenched from the seaboard to the Rockies. Harassed city officials have fought them with shotguns, fireworks and poison bait, and still they press onward, overwhelming by sheer weight of numbers.

Establish Rookery

The local 'fascio" has established a rookery on the outskirts of a neighboring town. Here they come during the fall months by the tens of thousands each evening. It is one of the most impressive sights in nature to watch these tremendous flocks wheel overhead and then start dropping out of the sky into the roosting area. Countless hordes of the yellow-billed starlings seem to be milling around in the sky in hopeless confusion, yet there is never a sign of collision as each group drifts safely down, clearing the air lanes for the next formation arriving overhead.

The starling is first of all a business bird. He lets nothing interfere with the important task of keeping his gizzard full. While amusing himself at the antics of the countryman heaving snow down there on the sidewalks, he keeps one eye on the neighboring barnyard. Just let a truckload of litter come trundling from the dairy barns and the poplar trees are soon vacated, as the hoodlums rush in to get the lion's share before the sparrows and the pigeons arrive.

Sun Already Veering North

As the shovel eats its way through the white coverlet the countryman ponders the advancing season, which has already sent the sun veering north from Capricorn. Another week or two and there will be no denying the insistent call of the warming rays. Broken maple twigs on the hillsides will soon bleed sugar water from the breaks during quiet sunny afternoons. The mourning cloak butterfly will take advantage of the same bright days to limber up its frost-stiffened wings, and float gracefully above the melting snow in the sunlit glades.

Will Be House-Hunting

Even now the lord high executioner of the timberlands, the great horned owl, has felt the impelling urge of the rolling year. In another week or two he and his fearsome mate, won after a most undignified protestation of his affection, will be house-hunting through the cold February trees. If they can't find a hollow big enough they will move into an old hawk's nest. Here these "early birds" will brood their clutch of round white eggs, often while the back of the sitting bird is covered with snow.

As February waits at the threshold, the outdoorsman suddenly awakens to the fact that another year has struck low twelve on the time chart of the ages, and has already set its face toward the lush days of high noon. Now is the time to mend broken tackle and replenish the fly box. With the advancing new year the days literally melt into weeks. Before he is fully prepared, the countryman will find the winter over, and the trout in the brawling mountain streams eager for the shining minnow spinning down through the rips.

Restitutions Are Made To State By Relief Chiselers

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The Department of Public Assistance reported today 1947 was a record year for restitutions by relief "chiselers."

Investigators, stepping up their campaign against fraud, caught hundreds of relief recipients not legally entitled to aid. Rebates totaling $371,000 were made by chiselers able to pay.

John H. Sylvester, chief of claims settlement, said the returns were 50 per cent higher than during 1946 and much larger than "conscience" sums of other years.

Fraud cases, he explained, embraced recipients who either deliberately evaded the scrutiny of case workers or who obtained some money or property after being enrolled or failed to account for all possessions when applying for aid.

Approximately 406,000 persons received relief for varying periods during 1947, but the heaviest enrollment at a given time was 303,000, Sylvester said.

Restitutions Up to $3,191,700

The department realized an additional $2,698,900 last year in rebates from property-owning enrollees or through settlement of estates of deceased recipients boosting total restitutions to $3,070,000.

The aggregate payments failed to equal record $3,191,700 returns of 1946 when hundreds of people took advantage of war-spawned economic independence to refund the state relief till for earlier assistance.

Sylvester attributed the drop partially to the fear of a recession that gripped the country last year.

Most of the settlements were obtained from aged persons selling their property or came from estates, according to Sylvester.

"We collect three-fourths of the amount given out in aid when estates are settled, if we can get it," he explained.

"We have liens against property held by enrollees and can collect from sales of real estate and other holdings," he added.

Sylvester said often property purchasers do not want to settle judgments immediately to get clear titles and in such instances "we let the judgment ride along."

He emphasized that the department seized its share of estates only in cases where decedents had no children.

Arab States Seek Arbitration Of Disputes By U. N.

By PIERRE J. HUSS,
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS N. Y., Jan. 28.—The Arab states have called upon the United Nations for establishment of a "committee of conciliation" by the "Little Assembly" for the arbitration of international disputes.

Byron Price, acting secretary-general in the absence of Trygve Lie, disclosed today that Lebanon has submitted a lengthy document proposing such a body.

Establishment of a "conciliation committee" presumably would be seized on by the Arab states as a lever to raise anew their own Palestine plan, particularly if partition becomes snagged by the Security Council's failure to back up the U.N. commission with an armed force.

Price said at a news conference today that in any case the problem of an international police to enforce partition is now up to the Security Council. The five-power commission polished off a report to the council on its Palestine task.

Potato Growers May Boost 1948 Acreage, Report

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Commercial potato growers in Pennsylvania are expected to boost their 1948 acreage to two per cent above last year, it was reported today by the state agriculture department.

Pennsylvania growers produced 17,985,000 bushles of spuds from 109,000 acres during 1947, a federal-state survey showed. Approximately 6,550,000 bushels were available for marketing January 1.

State farmers established a new record last year when potato yields averaged 165 bushels per acre, compared with 158 bushels per acre in 1946.

Morris and Richard Stine of Macungie, Lehigh county, came within 60 bushels of the all-time state record last year when they produced 721 bushels of Katahdins on a measured acre.

Brotherhood Stresses Equality Treatment

CLEVELAND, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen insisted today that all southeastern railroads provide "complete equality of treatment" to all firemen employed by those carriers, "regardless of race or previous status."

The BLF & E declared in a statement from its Cleveland headquarters that it has filed demands on the carriers as a result of recent court decisions supporting non-promotable negro firemen in their claim that present rules and practices "unfairly discriminate against them."

Serve Strike Notice

The BLF & E is one of three brotherhoods which have served a February 1 strike notice on the nation's railroads. It has more than 118,000 members and is the bargaining representative for the fireman's craft on all railroads in the country.

The United States circuit court in Baltimore ruled last October that the BLF & E, which admits no negroes to membership, must nevertheless protect all workers covered in its contracts from racial discrimination.

State Leader Praises Plan To Aid Aviation

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28.—(INS) The Finletter recommendation for bolstering aviation in the United States was praised by W. L. Anderson, director of the State Aeronautics Commission.

The program proposed to President Truman for stimulating airplane production and air commerce, which nosedived at the end of the war, would prove beneficial to Pennsylvania and the country as a whole, Anderson asserted.

Most Depressed Industry

"Aviation has become the most depressed of any industry," Anderson stated. "It is now prostrated. Markets have been lost because the public was willing to quit when hostilities ended and let our air force become undermanned and underequipped."

The multi-point proposal was advanced by Thomas K. Finletter, chairman of the president's aviation survey committee.

The recommendation included shipment of parcel post and first class mail by air to promote commercial aviation; a uniform tower control system in the interest of safety; federal aid airport development program to improve landing facilities; and revised administration of Civil Aeronautics in Washington.

Control Towers Proposal

Anderson praised particularly the proposal for operation of control towers by the federal government as against individual city control of municipal airport towers discussed by Congress during the past two years.

He was "heartily in favor" of a continued federal airport aid program that would emphasize improvement of existing landing fields rather than haphazard expansion.

Pennsylvania has 316 private and municipal airports, many lacking adequate facilities, for an estimated 5000 private and 1000 transport planes operating in the commonwealth. The Pittsburgh and Philadelphia airports, which handle the bulk of air travel in Pennsylvania, particularly were in greatest need of enlargement, according to Anderson.

Need Federal Funds

Federal funds for research and development were highly necessary if avation was to keep pace with the international picture, he warned.

Aircraft manufacturers cannot afford to improve models without markets for planes now built since development of a single plane costs as high as $20,000,000, he said. Federal support also would enable them to keep engineer and skeleton forces steadily at work so that they could shift production into high gear immediately in event of an emergency, he added.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Jan. 28. — (INS)—Mrs. Louis Payne, 35, the former Laura Lee of the stage and screen, and her two children were recovering in Braddock General Hospital today of injuries suffered in an auto accident last night.

Mrs. Payne, of New York City, was en route to California with her children, James, 11, and Patty Lou, 9, when their car collided with a vehicle driven by Mike Savko, of Irwin, Pa., police reported.

Her husband, who arrived in Braddock this morning, said the former actress suffered fractures of both legs. The children suffered facial injuries and possible nose fractures.

Resigned Premier Jabr Quits Capital Of Iraq During Day

LONDON, Jan. 28. — (INS) — Reuters reported from Baghdad that resigned Premier Saleh Jabr left the capital of Iraq today en route to the Royal Air Force base at Habbaniyah in order to fly to an undisclosed destination.

The departure of Premier Jabr was reported as diplomatic quarters in London speculated that the British treaty with Iraq, signed only on January 15, may have to be re-negotiated because of the resignation yesterday of Jabr and his cabinet.

The resignation followed 24 hours of rioting at Baghdad in protest against the treaty with Britain which pledged friendship and military aid. Numerous deaths occurred and many were wounded or injured.

The London Daily Herald placed casualties at 70 killed and 300 injured.

Seek To Require U. S. Employes To Tell Of Speculations

By FRANK B. ALLEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Legislation was introduced in the Senate today to require all government employes earning more than $9,000 annually to make an official report on income from speculation and other sources.

Senators and Congressmen would make such a report under the bill.

The legislation was sponsored by Sen. Taylor (D) Idaho and Sen. Morse (R) Oregon.

Taylor, introducing the measure, said that it would "put us all on the spat equally."

The Idaho senator told his colleagues that the new measure would require disclosure of all "outside" incomes by higher-bracket government personnel. He said this would include stock dividends, fees, income from partnerships, and profits from security or commodity transactions.

Taylor declared that "the public has a right to know about investments by the men who make our laws." He added:

"It will enable the public to know whether our judgment is being affected by our interests.

Pleads With U. S. To Feed Germany

German Food Director Says "America Can Safely Invest Money In Germany"

FRANKFURT, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Dr. Hans Schlange Schoeningen, food director of the Anglo-American Bisonal Economic council, pleaded for the inclusion of Germany in the Marshall plan.

Dr. Schoeningen declared that "America can safely invest her money in Germany."

Pointing to the serious food crisis sweeping the zone, Dr. Schoeningen called for a financial "boost" for Germany's economy.

More drastic food distribution measures than the recently passed "pantry inspection" law, may be required, he declared, and are now in the planning stage.

Offers Solution

The food director proposed a two-point solution for the food shortage in Germany:

1. More food imports plus more effective collection of domestic produce and more equal distribution; and 2. Immediate currency reform, which would raise industrial production and give farmers the incentive to market their produce legally.

Several Russian Ministers Stand Accused By Pravda

Newspaper Pravda Accuses Industrialists Of Deliberately Disrupting State Assignments

LONDON, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Several Russian industrial ministries were accused in a Moscow radio broadcast of "deliberately disrupting" Soviet state assignments.

The broadcast stressed that the recent abolition of rationing in Russia brought with it a demand upon industry for a considerable increase in the output of consumer goods.

Pravda Is Accuser

The chief criticism of the industrial ministries was levelled by the newspaper Pravda, organ of the Communist party.

After stressing that the Soviet government decree of June, 1945, obliged industrial enterprises to restore workshops producing consumer goods and to resume peace time production, Pravda said:

"The work of many of these plants cannot be recognized as satisfactory . . .

"In some places workshops producing industrial goods for the population even have closed down . . .

"Directors of many industrial ministries invent all sorts of objective reasons to justify the disruption of state assignments on the output of consumer goods."

Baby Chick Output In 1947 Slightly Lower Than In 1946

HARRISBURG, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The scarcity and high cost of feed coupled with diminishing markets were blamed today by the State Agriculture Department for a slump in baby chick production in Pennsylvania.

Output during 1947 was pegged at 61,510,000, a one per cent drop from 1946 production, the department reported.

Hatching during December yielded only 750,000 chicks, the lowest rate for the month since 1940, it added. The figure was more than 1,000,000 below average production for the period during the past eight years.

Demand Poor

"Some Pennsylvania poultrymen are delaying start of operation due to the poor demand," the department said. "Reports on eggs in incubators and chicks booked indicate that January production will be considerably below a year ago."

A national survey indicated the trend prevailed throughout the United States. National output of chicks during December was 12 per cent below that of the same month of 1946 and six per cent below the average for the month.

But production for the entire year was expected to equal that of 1946 when 1,262,000,000 birds were hatched.

Former Wac Is Given Sentence

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28.—(INS)—A 27-year-old ex-WAC drew a maximum prison sentence of 20 years today after she was convicted of the necktie strangle-slaying of Paul Digenovario, 46.

The former WAC, Mrs. Carolyn Kaniuk, was ordered to the State Industrial Home for Women at Muncy, Pa., where a parole board will fix her minimum term of imprisonment.

Mrs. Kaniuk was charged with murdering Digenovario, father of five, in a West Philadelphia hotel room a year ago.

Originally she was convicted of first degree murder, but won a new trial.

Many Lose Rights To Cast Ballots

About 1445 Fail To Reinstate Franchise After Being Disqualified

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Approximately 1,445 voters have lost their right to cast a ballot until they re-register. A. Lewis Conn, chief clerk to the registration bureau, said Tuesday that out of 2,050 notices of withdrawal sent to voters, only 650 had reinstated themselves by returning the card sent them.

Among the 1,445 would be a number who have died, others have moved away, and most of the balance apparently cared nothing for their right of franchise.

Voters' names were withdrawn from the registry list when they failed to vote in any election within two years last past. When the notice of withdrawal is sent, a card is sent with it permitting the voter to sign it and return it and he is thus reinstated.

In the 1,445 those who are able to vote and want to vote cannot do so now until they again register at the court house. The time for sending back cards is done, telephone service won't do, and the only way they can be qualified to vote is to appear before the registrars and again register.

70,467 RODE ON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Various Amusements At Cascade Park Were Kept Busy Last Summer

Cascade Park at present wears a mantle of white because of the deluge of snow which struck the city, and while activities have been stilled since Labor Day, a check-up shows that many persons enjoyed themselves on the various amusements there last summer.

According to statistics provided by Controller William A. Moore, the merry-go-round was the busiest contraption last summer, 70,-467 rides having been paid for. No doubt many of the children who went to the park rode the merry-go-round several times.

The Dodge 'Em was next busiest, 47,533 rides having been paid for, while 28,548 found relief from the heat in the pool which the city acquired by purchase from Billy Glenn years ago.

The backs of the ponies were tired when the summer ended, the small animals having carried 25,-541 children, while 15,690 rounded the miniature golf course.

Fifteen thousand three hundred and seventy-four riders were taken on the terraplane, 8,744 on the torpedo, 8,502 on the seaplane and 1,684 rode on the elephant.

Local Performers On Stage Program

Among the many performers who tried for the Horace Heidt talent show in Youngstown, O., were Miss Peggy Ezzo, promising vocalist of the city, and James Anthony, talented pianist, also of New Castle.

Miss Ezzo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ezzo of East Brook street, and Mr. Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Anthony, 408 Martin street, though not final winners, were asked to perform on the Sunday afternoon show as special guest performers.

Miss Ezzo sang the "Italian Street Song" and Mr. Anthony played "Rhapsody in Blue". They were the only New Castle performers asked to return. Both are seniors at New Castle senior high school.

Orville Wright Is Resting Comfortably

DAYTON, O., Jan. 28.—(INS)—Orville Wright, 76-year-old co-inventor of the airplane, was reported resting comfortably today at the Miami Valley hospital after suffering a stroke in his laboratory yesterday afternoon.

Physicians said Wright's illness was similar to that suffered last October when he had a "fainting spell" as he entered the offices of the National Cash Register company and was bruised in a fall.

The first man to pilot a heavier-than-air craft, Wright with his late brother, Wilbur, pioneered the first flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C., on Dec. 17, 1903.

Lawrence County Farm, Home News

By Extension Representative, Lewis C. Dayton, Agriculturist, Miss Emmeline Niebman, Home Economics

FARM PROFIT MARGIN MAY SHRINK IN 1948

Without benefit of a crystal bowl, but merely regarding 1948 prospects for Lawrence County farmers on the basis of known conditions and expected trends, Extension Agricultural Economists look at the new year as one which calls for "fullest production consistent with maximum efficiency."

Efficiency appears to be the watchword. Farmers should become increasingly conscious of the probability of less favorable cost-price relationships in the near future than now prevail. If this happens, the farm profit margin may get thinner.

As to farm costs, they have this to say: "Farm costs have never been higher. On October 15, 1947, they were 289 per cent of the 1909-1914 base period, and 209 per cent of the 1935-1939 level."

"When farm prices fall," they caution, "many of the costs involved in farming will lag." That happened as an anti-climax to the inflationary period following World War I.

STAINS DON'T MAR LINEN WHEN TREATED RIGHT

Party or no party, table linen is bound to be stained, careful as the guests may be. There is no need to be disturbed or take the fun away from the party because most stains can be removed without damage to the linen.

The quicker the stains can be removed, the easier they will come out. Many stains are set by the heat and soap of regular laundering. Cold or lukewarm water is always a safe cleansing agent except for fruit stains which are best removed by pouring boiling water over them.

Before trying to take out a stain, find out what caused it. If food or candle wax is dried on the cloth, scrape it off carefully with a dull knife. Moisten the spot with water and rub gently between the hands. Rubbing helps to loosen the food embedded in the fibers. If a stain remains after several rubbings, use a grease solvent. Sponge the spot, then rub gently. Repeat the process if necessary, then wash in warm soap suds and rinse in clear water.

Because of the many ingredients in ice cream, stains from this food require a different treatment. Water removes milk, sugar, egg, and sometimes fruit. A grease solvent will take care of the fat. If a fruit or chocolate stain remains, it will be necessary to use a bleach. Use a bleach only on white linens, and always rinse the fabric thoroughly after using the bleach.

Municipalities Will Get Larger Road Allocations

HARRISBURG—Municipal subdivisions of Pennsylvania will receive an increased amount during 1948 for street construction and maintenance from the motor fund, it was announced by the highway department.

Employes in the department of highways are busy preparing requisitions for the first quarterly payment due March 1, under the appropriation act approved last year by Governor Duff for the years 1948 and 1949.

The 1947 session of the General Assembly set aside 20 million dollars for 1948 and 1949 or three million more than for 1946 and 1947. Cities, boroughs and first class townships will receive $391.53 for each mile of street during this year. In 1947, these groups received only $335.26 a mile. There are 5558.46 miles of city streets, 5570.33 miles of borough streets and 1641.74 miles of streets in first class townships.

Order Cleanup Of Mahoning County Jail Immediately

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 28.—(INS)—Five common pleas judges, acting on a report of Federal Prison Inspectors, have ordered Sheriff Ralph E. Elser to take immediate action to have the Mahoning county jail "cleaned up."

The prison inspectors had attacked the jail administration, sanitation conditions and the physical condition of the 39-year-old jail.

Short-term federal prisoners are housed in the jail.

Fathe Escalante, a noted Spanish missionary, was the second white man to visit the territory of Utah. He made his visit in July, 1776, the same month and year as the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Last Period Onslaught Swamps Ellwood City, 54-29

Hurricane Scores 26 Points In 8 Minutes Black-Janacone Star

Close Game Turns Into Rout As Locals "Blow Hot" In Whirlwind Finish; Wallace Yanks Varsity As Deluge Starts; 'Canes In Tie For Second Place.

Racking up their third straight Section Three victory in a row, the New Castle High "Blitz" kids today ascended into the rarefied atmosphere of second place along with Beaver Falls, as a result of an overwhelming 54 to 29 defeat of the Ellwood City High Wolverines last night at the overcrowded Washington High gym floor.

It was New Castle's fourth sectional win of the current season against two reverses, and keeps the Bill Douglass coached charges very much in the title picture. It begins to look as if New Castle at Beaver Falls and the Aliquippa at New Castle games could tell the story.

Janacone-Black High

Continuing his fine play young Jimmy Janacone was a ball of fire again last night as he racked up 16 points to be high man, followed by Don Black with 13 and Don Reed with nine. Popescu and O'Hara led the Ellwood team in tallying.

DON BLACK

Coach Bill Douglass used 10 men in the game, his subs, Fullerton, Reed, Ordak and Picirillo supplying 14 of the points. Coach Ted Wallace used 11 men, emptying the bench.

What Goes On?

Coach Wallace has the fans still wondering what "gives" in the last four minutes of the game when he yanked his entire first team, sent them to the showers and finished with his second stringers, who while they tried hard could not match the New Castle team, the locals running wild to run the score from 38 to 25 to 54 to 29, as the buzzer ended the contest.

Last year Wallace yanked his team off the floor with two minutes of the game remaining to be played, fans will recall.

Locals Take Big Lead

New Castle jumped to a big lead in the first few minutes of the game, after Ellwood had taken a momentary lead at 2 to 0 as Mattocks blasted one in from the tip-off. Gribble's foul and a field goal by Black gave New Castle the lead 3 to 2 and Ellwood saw the first period close trailing 14 to 7.

Close Play Two Periods

Ellwood City came back in the second period and made a ball game out of it. Watterson's foul tying the count at 14-14, with three minutes to go in the heat, then Popescue put Ellwood in front at 15 to 14 with a foul and Janacone promptly tied it up again at 15-15 with a foul, New Castle drawing ahead 17 to 15 as Don Black blasted one in. The first half ended 21 to 15.

With four minutes gone in the third period New Castle led 21 to 20, Gregg shot a foul for the visitors and it was tied up at 21-21. Janacone made a two-plier and put the locals in front 23 to 21. New Castle was never headed after that, nor tied.

Locals Apply Heat

New Castle applied the heat in the final period, running the count to 38 to 25 in the first four minutes of play, when Coach Wallace yanked his first team and sent in the subs and it ceased to be a ball game, the strategy failed to work.

It was a listless game the final four minutes, like watching an executioner do his stuff.

At Duquesne Friday

New Castle will play a non-league game at Duquesne Friday night, and will return to the Section Three wars here next Tuesday with Ambridge the opponent. New Castle's sudden rise in the sectional race is only due to one thing—team work. The boys looked very good last night, passing the ball nicely and putting up a great defensive game.

In foul tossing New Castle made 10 out of 24, and Ellwood 9 out of 22.

Ellwood salvaged the preliminary game, winning from the New Castle JV's 29 to 21 in a thriller.

Four County' Boys On Card

Lawrence county atmosphere will pervade Yo-Arena, Youngstown, Thusday night, when a pro' fistic enterprise is promoted by Al Zill.

Frankie Moran, welterweight; Roy Crews, middleweight; Billy Pozza, heavyweight, and Benny Newkirk, lightweight, are calendared.

Moran fights Bobby Simms of Homestead in the six round semi-final to the Lou Valles vs Mickie Doyle, 10 round main bout.

Billy Pozza is carded against Eddie Benesch of Youngstown, in another six rounder.

Roy Crews takes on Chuck Higgins in a four rounder and Benny Newkirk swaps punches with Dave Adams of Pittsburgh, in the other four round bout.

POTTERY PLAYING ROCHESTER LEGION

Thursday night at the "Y" floor the Shenango Pottery five will clash with the strong Rochester Legion team, led by a center who towers 6 feet eight inches.

The tilt is scheduled for 8:15 p. m.

NETS 30 POINTS A GAME!

HE'S SO BIG he almost can drop the ball into the hoop from above. At least his opponents have been unable to stop him from scoring 30 points a game. The cager is Mark Workman, 6-foot-8-inch giant of the Charleston, W. Va., high school team. He's sought by many colleges but will enroll at West Virginia. (International)

Sharon Knocks Farrell Out Of Race, 42 To 36

Aliquippa And Ambridge Move Game Ahead; Will Clash Tonight

SHARON, Jan. 28.—Farrell high school, the team picked by many to sweep Section 3 honors this year, faded into the vale of has-beens today following a stunning loss to Sharon here last night, 42-36—a defeat that knocked the Tudor Lewis lads from the title chase.

Unable to recapture the coordination and scoring punch they had in profusion earlier in the season, the Steelers found that successive losses to Aliquippa and New Castle put them under severe pressure and they buckled again last evening.

Led by Garay, Listiak and Jones, each with 12 points, the Bengals nosed ahead at the first period end, 10-7, but lost the edge to the Steelers at the intermission, 16-17. However the Collodi crew bounced back to pull in front, 31-26 in the third heat and then fought frantically to maintain the margin to the buzzer.

Hammond Stars

Big John Hammond, Farrell's one-man team, again was brilliant, stuffing in 16 points, but he was the only Steeler hitting last night.

Aliquippa, currently leading the pack, will meet Ambridge tonight, the game having been moved ahead one day. The 'Quips, with a 4-1 record, will be battling to stay in front. A loss would throw them into a tie with New Castle and Beaver Falls.

'March Of Dimes' Game Friday To Attract Crowd

New Castle Elks Will Battle Bellevue AA At Washington High Court, Good Prelim

If the effort being put forth by the New Castle Elks Lodge 69 is rewarded, there will be a packed gym at Washington High Friday night as the Coach Paul Morrison Elks quintet takes on the strong Bellevue AA team in the main game and the Elks Reserves play the fast Shenango Colored "Y" in the preliminary game at 7:15 o'clock.

The Elks are really going "all out" for this game, just as they do everything they tackle, and have underwritten the entire expense of the game, and will turn over the entire gate receipts to the March of Dimes fund here in Lawrence county for the fight on infantile paralysis.

Tickets Distributed

Tickets for the game may be purchased at any of the following places, it was announced today: Dave and Spears Shine, Lumley's Drug store, Rice's Pharmacy, Elks club and the post office. Besides, the Elks members have tickets for sale and are meeting a ready response.

The good basketball fans of New Castle will not let the "kiddies" down on this one, you can bet on that. The Elks would like to see the Washington High floor jammed to overflowing Friday night.

Bellevue Strong Club

Bellevue is bringing a powerful team here for the benefit game. Frank Morris, a former captain at Pitt university last year; Earl Taylor, 6-foot member of the championship Avalon High team of 1945; Bob Baumbeck, 6-foot 2-inch, chosen Catholic All-State in 1945; Don Albright, 5-foot-10, great dribbler, former Bellevue High star; Sam Zeman, 6-foot 2-inch former Ohio university luminary; Sam Cosentino, 5-foot-9, ex-Pitt star, and Eddie Lawry, former Pitt star and coach of the team.

Last year the Bellevue team was in the semi-finals of the Buhl club tourney and in the finals at Sebring, O.

Coach Morrison will have his strongest possible lineup available, it was announced, and may have Freddie Wimer in the lineup, it was indicated.

Wampum Remains Serious Threat

Indians Defeat New Wilmington, 44 To 37, Last Night, King Starring

Wampum Indians remained serious threats to the league leading Bessemer High team, for the leadership in the hot Section 23 race, by dumping the New Wilmington team, 44 to 37 with King and Mohr the big siege guns followed by Armatorio.

It was an even game the first period 5-5, and Wampum saw the Greyhounds take a 17 to 12 lead at the half, but came right back to grab it 24 to 22 as the third ended, tunring on the heat in the final stanza for 20 points, allowing Wilmington 15. Hutchison and Graham carried the scoring burden for the Eagleson coached lads.

In the prelim the Wampums took it 31-10. The Wampum win put New Wilmington out of second place, and dropped them down to the next notch with Shenango and Mt. Jackson.

Pulaskis, Oil City Play Here Friday In Benefit Tilt

Union Township Volunteer Fire department fund will be swelled considerably Friday night at the Union High floor as the result of the K. Pulaskis and Oil City Merchants tangling at 8:15 o'clock, following a fast preliminary game at 7:30 o'clock. The Pulaski Cubs will play a strong local team in the first game.

Al Gonet and his K.P. "Big Five" are going all out to win this one and expect a large crowd to be in the stands. The Union Township firemen are really shoving the game at the limit.

Oil City Strong

Oil City has a strong array of stars led by Bill Eckert, Wimpy Ward, Al Ward, Bill McMurray, Bob Lynch, Dave Mackie, Red McGurn, Dave Lynch and Chuck Deemer. Seven of the players are over the six-foot mark. The tallest boy being "Wimpy" Ward 6 foot 6 inches, who was with Geneva in Madison Square Garden and Convention Hall in Philadelphia. Bill Eckert is a former Portland, Ore., star, and is also coach of the team.

Idle for several days, the K.P. "Big Five" will have to be at its best to upset the Oilers. Coach Gonet is adding a few well-known stars to his roster for this game.

Babe Didrikson won 632 out of 634 contests she entered as an amateur.

NATIONAL CHAMP TO BOX HILSON

Grimes Won Title At Boston, Then Made Victorious Trip To Hawaii

When fans and fanettes wend their way into The Arena, February 4, they'll see a national amateur champion in Paddy Grimes who is slated to battle Chuck Hilson of Youngstown, who fights Wednesday night for the 147 pound championship in the Youngstown tournament.

Paddy won his national championship at Boston, then with Bobby Bell, and other kings of various classes in amateur classes, journeyed to Hawaii where he met and defeated the best Hawaiian offered. He is a son of Pat Grimes who handled Nick Poli in Jolly Bowl days.

Among the others on the docket February 4, will be Ray Rocco, who has shown he likes to fight, Eddie O'Hara and Billy Underwood of Youngstown.

Eddie fought Willie Wright here in July and Bobby Mason, a year ago, this month. He was more clever than Wright but lost a split decision, and after three rough rounds with Mason, was decisioned. However, his type of fighting appealed to the crowd.

Two Sets Of Brothers

Billy Underwood decisioned Hemp Adams last September in three fast rounds then took on George Kondos and beat him also in three chapters in August.

One of the features of the coming fistic attraction is that two sets of brothers are calendared. The McQueen boys, Lou, at 135, and Allen, at 118, are to box Tex Martin, a rugged fighter, of Youngstown, and Rocco, respectively. Jimmy O'Hara, brother to Eddie, weighs 160, and will take on Roughouse Lou Burelli, a middleweight of New Castle who boxed Gene Sebastian of Sharon, in one of the toughest fights ever seen in The Arena.

The fights will be promoted by the Jefferson A. C.

Tuesday YMCA League Results

Four battles were staged in the House and Shenango Pottery loops at the "Y" floor last night with the following results:

In the inter-plant league the Bisque Ware boys edged the Sagger room, 31-30 led by Tanner who caged 20 points. The 49'rs won via forfeit from the Glostware team in the other slated game.

In the House league the Business college took an overtime tussle from the Wings, 37-32 and the Forest A. C. nosed out the Shamrocks, 33-32. Saturday night there will be a play-off between the Rebels and the Wings, it was announced.

Tonight's Church league action finds the First Methodists meeting the St. George five, the First Baptist against the Third U. P. and the First U. P. vs. Wampum.

New Castle Rifle Club Loses Match

New Castle rifle club lost to the Beaver Valley team at the Cathedral range Monday night 1187 to 1180 with Wilbur Thomas again shooting high score of 246 out of a 250 possible. The Beaver Valley team has won the first-half title, being undefeated, in eight matches.

Saturday, January 31, the riflemen of this district will meet at Evans City for the annual prone and standing tournament, sponsored by the gun club of that city. The course of fire will be twenty shots at each position. Thursday is the regular meeting night for the local club, Secretary Paul Carrigan announced.

Underdog 'Scotties' Pull One Of Biggest Surprises Of Season

Shenango high school's Section 23 title chances all but flitted out the windows of the Union high gym last night as the underdog "Scotties" jolted the Nahas lads, 40-36 in a stunning upset.

Breaking away from a 10-10 first period deadlock, the James-coached boys led and the half, 18-13 and kept up the attack in the last two frames to seal the win.

Nevotne, a sub forward, led the scoring with 13 points as eight players hit the marker column. Harry Zurasky led the 'Cats with 12.

Bessemer Stays On Top Of Loop

Defeat Mt. Jackson Tuesday Night 47 To 29 At Bessemer Floor, Sixth Win

Willie Ciccone's fast traveling Bessemer High Cementers romped to an easy 47 to 29 win over the Mt. Jackson High rivals last night at the Bessemer floor, to remain atop the red-hot Section 23 league with six wins and one defeat, that to New Wilmington. The Wampums are in second place.

Bessemer took a 12-to-5 lead the first period and at the halfway mark held a 24-to-17 advantage. The end of the third stanza found the Bessemers in front 38 to 21. Mt. Jackson was having a tough time locating the hoops, outside of young Butler who had 17 points on seven field goals and three fouls, but had no help.

Bessemer was never in much danger in the game. August Anderson and Gennarro led the scoring with 22 of the points between them. Coach Ciccone used 12 men in the game, emptying the bench. Coach Fran Webster used eight players.

Mt. Jackson took the preliminary game 22 to 18.

HERE AND THERE
IN SPORTS' LAND

THIS is going to be a great year in baseball and already 11 clubs claim to have the "rookie of the year." Spring training is yet distant but the bugles already are blaring the ability of the newcomers. The Cincinnati Reds think they have a shortstop to top Alvin Dark of the Boston Braves, former Louisiana State All-America halfback, who hit .303 and was a defensive jewel as he led Milwaukee Brewers to the little world series. The Redlegs boast Virgil Stallcup, who hit .340 for Jersey City of the International. Roger Peckinpaugh hails him as the best he has seen in 20 years. Detroit is booming George Vico of San Francisco. He hit .300 for Portland. The Pirates outbid seven other clubs to collect Eddie Fitzgerald, Sacramento catcher who banged the ball at a .357 clip in the Pacific Coast league. The Giants have Wesley Westrum of Clearbrook, Minn., who hit .295 at Minneapolis and walloped 22 home runs, which was only one behind the American Association leader. Two potential star outfielders are Ken Wood, who is going to the Browns and Cal Abrams, who'll land with the Dodgers. Wood, of Charleston, N. C., was second in the eastern circuit with 23 homers and 96 runs batted in. Abrams banged the apple at a .345 pace at Mobile where he topped the league in bases on balls and runs scored. He once belted a 475-foot tripper.

The Cards, in need of hurling strength, are pounding the drum for Clarence Beers of Houston, first Texas leaguer to win 25 games in a decade. He turned in that feat for Houston. He hurled 24 complete games which included six shutouts and walked only 63 in 288 frames. The Phillies anticipate a great deal of 19-year-old Curt Simmons of Egypt, Pa., whom Herb Pennock has described as a second "Rube Waddell.' He pitched for Wilmington, Del., to the tune of 13 wins and five defeats. He went with the Phils the last day and against the Giants he fanned nine, and won 3-1. Cleveland has hopes that Bill Kennedy, a Georgian, will show plenty. The southpaw won 43 against five defeats in two years. He was with Scranton in the Eastern loop in 1947. The Cubs are extremely fanciful of Southpaw Cliff Chambers, of Portland, Ore., who won 24 against nine defeats at Los Angeles. He headed the Coast league with wins and 178 strikeouts. The foregoing players are touted, at the moment, as the best 1948 rookie bets. But there are so many coming up to the Big Show that, almost anybody is liable to walk with the "Rookie of the Year" honor.

Mighty W.V.U. Toppled, 52-41

WASHINGTON, Pa., Jan. 28.—(INS)—The tri-state area had its second major college basketball upset in two nights when Washington & Jefferson College overwhelmed West Virginia University 52-41 last night.

The prexies took the lead at the beginning of the second quarter and never relinquished it. They led 28-18 at half-time and 38-31 at the end of the third period.

Andy Mestrovic of W. & J. led the individual scorers with 10 points.

The defeat third of the season, practically eliminates the Mountaineers from tournament consideration.

On Monday night, Duquesne University dropped its first game of the season to Texas Wesleyan 57-53. Thus, both of the tri-state area's tournament representatives of last year were knocked over on successive nights.

LOSING-EST TEAM

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Jan. 27.—(INS)—Waynesburg High School may hold the rather unique distinction of having the losing-est high school team in Pennsylvania.

Monday night, the club dropped its 15th consecutive basketball game of the season, to East Washington high, by the score of 32-19.

WOULD LIKE GAMES

The Johnson Bronze Second Turn basketball team will schedule games with first class teams for any Tuesday or Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. All games are played at the St. Mary's Catholic Center. For games call 2752-R and ask for Joe, or 1919-R and ask for "Ducky".

Czarobski Seen Going To Cards

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—(INS)—It evolves on excellent information that Ziggy Czarobski, Notre Dame tackle who made International News Service's 1947 All-American first team, will join the Chicago Cardinals, champs of the National Football League, within 10 days.

This will come as yet another blow to the newly-reorganized Chicago Rockets of the All-American football conference. The Rockets had planned on acquiring Quarterback Johnny Lujack and the two Irish tackles.

Czarobski and George Connor, in a "package deal" fashioned by their new coach, ex-Notre Dame Pilot Ed McKeever, but lost out on Lujack and Connor when the Chicago Bears got 'em.

Now, apparently, the Rockets have lost Czarobski too.

Bucs Surprise; Release Rikard

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 28.—(INS)—In a surprise move, the Pittsburgh Pirates today announced the outright release of Culley Rikard, 32-year-old outfielder, to the Indianapolis club of the American Association.

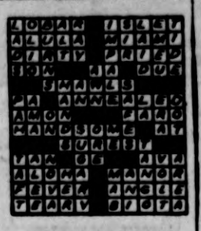

Rikard batted .287 in 109 games in 1947, his first complete year in the major leagues. He had all the qualifications of a big leaguer except a good throwing arm. His release cut the Pirate playing personnel to 39.

At the same time the Pirates announced receipt of signed contracts from Pitcher Ed Bahr and Outfielder Joe Grace.

It took Sala only one minute and 31 seconds to chill the husky New Yorker, for the shortest victory of his career, in one of three ten round bouts last night in the Pittsburgh Gardens.

In another ten, Dorsey Lay, Philadelphia welterweight veteran, won a decisive victory over Sammy Adragna, Carnegie, Pa. Lay's harder and sharper punching won him seven of the ten rounds. At 144 pounds, Lay spotted Adragna four pounds.

Feed

Let Our Quality Feeds
—be your barometer. "Our Quality" feeds are now better than ever before. All ingredients are now available; scientific and experimental knowledge has been developed to a higher level, so that now "Our Quality" feeds are truly "As good as the best—better than the rest." So we say to pay more is extravagance, to pay less is false economy. No one can make feed so good so cheap.

NEW RALLY IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Stocks rallied further today in a continuation of the move yesterday which followed Marriner Eccles' demotion. Gains generally were fractional with practically every section in demand.

Steels were prominent, U. S. Steel advancing a major fraction on its good annual report. In a firm chemical division, Union Carbide stood out with a three-point climb. Motors rose fractions to nearly a point in Chrysler. Persistent buying aided the oils, rails, aviations and amusements.

Volume was fairly heavy, first hour sales numbering 170,000 shares.

St. Lawrence Corp., on the curb, tumbled more than 1½ points to below 9 when a Canadian court set aside a reorganization plan which shareholders had already approved. Other curb stocks were firm, as were big board bonds.

In commodities cotton advanced.

United Steelworkers Wage Policy Group Meets February 18

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 28.—(INS)—The CIO United Steelworkers' 170-man wage policy committee is scheduled to meet in Pittsburgh on February 18 to formulate a new wage pattern for the steel industry, it was announced today.

At the same time it was announced that the union's international executive board will meet in Pittsburgh two days earlier, on February 16.

Seek Increases

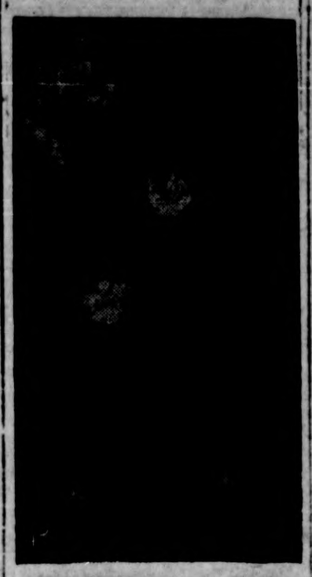

Union headquarters, in announcing the meetings, said that the wage policy committee is expected to prepare a program of wage increases for the 675,000 members.

While the union's contracts with the steel companies has until April 30 of next year to run, there is a provision for reopening the wage section by submitting a formal notice on April 1 of this year.

CIO President Philip Murray gave no indication of what would be sought, but some time ago he did say that higher wages would have to be demanded to meet the increase in the cost of living.

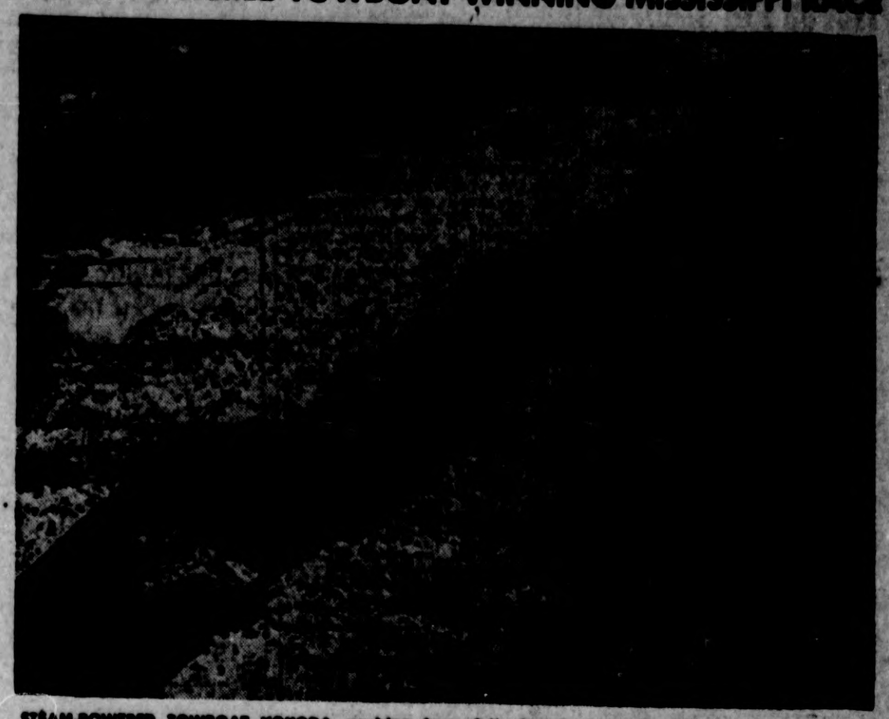

Forty-seven per cent of the total area of the Philippines is covered with commercial forests.

United Engineering Dividend Declared

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 28.—United Engineering and Foundry Company declared a dividend of 75 cents on the common stock and a regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 on the preferred stock, both payable February 17 to record February 6. In previous quarters, the company has paid 50 cents on the common stock.

Company officials said the volume of business transacted in 1947 and the prospects for 1948 justified the 75-cent payment.

Stresses Relations Between U.S.-Britain

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Lord Inverchapel, British ambassador to the United States, today lauded firmness of Anglo-American relations as the real hope of preserving world peace.

The amabassador was in Pittsburgh to speak before the Foreign Policy Association discussion group. He was accompanied by Walter Bell, his aide.

England is so short of cloth today that she is making men's ties from wartime RAF escape maps and paper collars.

Former Officials Of W.S.A. Sentenced

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28.—(INS)—Year and a day jail sentences were imposed today upon two former officials of the war shipping administration.

The sentences were given by Federal Guy K. Bard after the men—Frank Sales, 65, of Philadelphia, and John W. Chott, 49, of Chicago—were found guilty of war contract bribes.

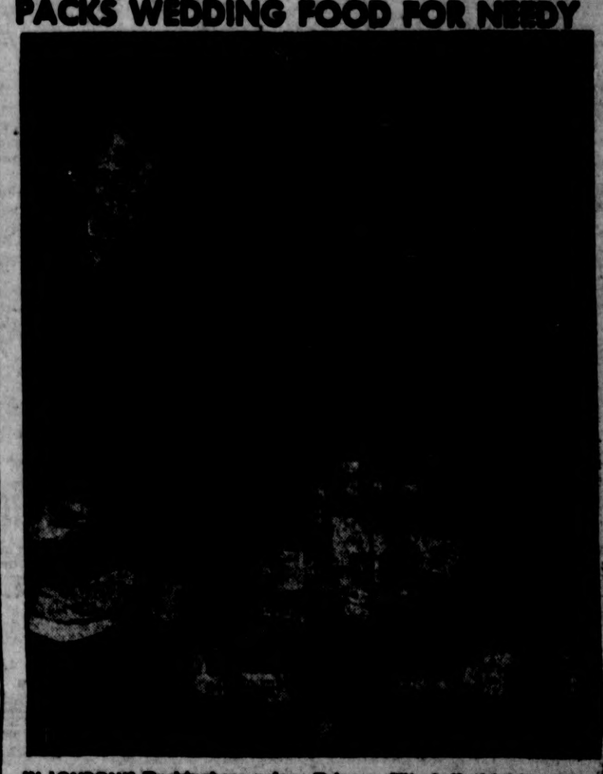

Sales was fined $500 and Chott, $350 in addition to their sentences.

A third man—John P. Donnelly, of Philadelphia—was fined $500 and given a suspended sentence as a co-conspirator.

They were specifically accused of accepting bribes from Delaware waterfront contractors to "swing" war contracts for repairing damaged ships.

Needs For 1948 Told By Nichols

President Of Youngstown Chamber Of Commerce Speaks About Dangers Ahead

SEES NEED FOR TAKING STOCK

In an address before the Lions Club, Tuesday noon, Charles G. Nichols, president of the G. M. McKelvey Company, of Youngstown, and president of the Youngstown Chamber of Commerce, stated that it was time the people of the United States took stock, and began to be aware of the dangerous channels into which the country is drifting.

It is time the business and professional men of this country know what is going on in Washington, whether we actually are fighting a cold war which can turn into a hot war; whether we need to pour as much money into the Marshall plan as is claimed, Mr. Nichols stated.

Europe Needs To Work

America was built by sweat and labor, the speaker said, and in his belief, the only way Europe will get on its feet again, is by the same method. We cannot go on being a fairy godfather to the rest of the world.

What this country needs is a national budget built on business principles and not political propaganda. Too many people are led to believe that they can get all the help they need from the government without doing anything for it in return.

Economists disagree on what the coming year holds for us. A recent analysis made by the nation's leading economists revealed that they were not in agreement on what the year 1948 holds for us. The result has been a downward trend in the market.

It is time that we wake up and face the facts. If the national debt of 270 billions of dollars were broken down so that it showed how much each one of us owes, we might wake up and do something about it.

Should Reduce Taxes

Mr. Nichols stated that in his opinion, the government could reduce taxes and still reduce our national debt, something which the present administration seems little inclined to do.

He called attention to the fact that there are around 560,000 government employes on the payroll, who could be dispensed with, without hurting the operation of government.

If everyone would put his shoulder to the wheels in 1948 and produce as much as he could, instead of as little, we would once again be on a competitive basis, prices would come down, and we could go forward to the most prosperous decade this country has ever known.

James G. Wheeler, of 201 Locust street, local American Oil Company superintendent, was admitted as a new member of the club. Guests included A. J. Weyer, of Erie, and Lewis J. Urbach, of Beaver Falls.

Soft Coal Operators Express Fears For Government Control

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(INS) Soft coal operators expressed fears Tuesday that establishment of a coal advisory council would lead to government controls in the industry.

Their views were presented at a two-hour session with Interior Secretary J. A. Krug and officials of the Federal Bureau of Mines.

Krug called the conference to seek creation of the advisory council to handle long-range problems affecting the coal industry, including the impact of the Marshall plan and programs for developing synthetic fuels.

To Avoid Controls

The interior secretary assured the mine owners that establishment of the council was designed to avoid government controls by securing voluntary cooperation of the industry on future programs.

The operators requested a written statement of the purposes of the advisory council and momentarily deferred any commitment on whether they would participate in the group until they had studied this document.

In voicing apprehension about government controls, the industry officials lined up with United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis who flatly refused to join such a council.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 28.—(INS)—At 21 Diana Lynn is at last foot loose and fancy free in her screen career.

After seven years of being under contract to Paramount, beauteous Diana has begun work on her first picture as an independent, "Texas, Brooklyn and Heaven" for Producer Robert S. Golden.

Isn't Bit Mad

Diana isn't the least bit mad at Paramount, where she'll make one picture a year, but she said:

"As nice as Paramount has been to me, seven years it too long to be tied body and soul to one studio.

"It's a wonderful feeling to know that from now on I'll be able to pick my own selections. I may make mistakes, but, at least, they will be my own mistakes."

By preference, Diana will turn to comedy, like her first free-lance selection.

"I think I can do comedy better than drama," she said.

Wanted To Be Alone

They had a half hour delay the other day in work on "John Loves Mary" at Warner's—and for the darndest reason.

As part of the plot, they had Ronald Reagan and Patricia Neal, the newcomer from Broadway, hold a pair of turtle doves. All was serene until Pat opened her hand and her turtle dove flew up into the rafters where it proceeded to sing what the crew interpreted to be love songs to its mate.

A trainer made every effort to call the wandered down because camera shooting was impossible with all the noise the bird made. Finally two grips climbed into the rafters and trapped it.

Apartment Hunting

The other noon I had a luncheon date at Universal-International with Ken Carter, who is married to beautiful Maria Montez' beautiful sister, Consuelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter and their baby have been living in an apartment in Beverely Hills, where for an expensive rent they live in cramped quarters.

When I arrived at the studio, Ken was in a dither because he had heard of a two-bedroom apartment for rent in the San Fernando Valley for only $85 a month. It sounded ridiculously low, so Ken and I started out at high speed.

No Soap

After a long drive, partly over a dirt road which almost shook the spring out of my car, we came to the address.

Ken didn't take the apartment, but we did get into a mild argument. I insisted the place was a converted chicken coop, but Kenny was equally sure it once have been a cow-shed.
